A WORD TO REPUBLICANS.

We take this opportunity to warn all of our readers, and all who expect to take part in the approaching primary election for municipal officers, against vague accusations set afloat at the last moment, when it is too late to disprove them, for the purpose of defeating any of the gentlemen seeking the nominations from our party. It is an old political dodge, and should be discountenanced by all good citizens. The candidates are all capable, intelligent, sober and honest, are well known to the entire community, and baseless and malicious ROORBACHS, printed on the eve of the election, should not be heeded or allowed to change the vote of any good citizen. We are aware of this purpose, on the part of at least one of our cotemporaries, and it is not the first time it has attempted to sow the seeds of discord in the ranks of Republicanism, and we write now for the purpose of defeating its designs, as we are convinced its purpose is to start some misrepresentation, for the purpose of organizing a BOLT in case the people should see fit to nominate certain candidates whom it is known to dislike. Let no such attempts interfere with the harmony of our party, but let us have a fair, honest election, so that we can heartily and unanimously support the ticket chosen by the people. We are prepared to give our hearty support to the gentlemen selected at the coming primary election. They are all good Republicans and in every way worthy of our support and the confidence of the community. We discountenance all efforts at this late day to establish a contrary opinion, and all such we brand as attempts to create discord in the party, for the purpose of defeating the wishes of the people. Beware of Roorbachs!

THE STATE.

HON. H. BUCHER SWOOPE is to speak in Beaver, at the Court House, on Tuesday evening, September 5th.

THE Prohibition men of Beaver county are going to hold a county convention in the Court House on September 4th.

THRESHING MACHINE accidents, the result of which is the amputation of a finger, arm or leg, are frequent in all part of the State.

WASHINGTON is to have a course of lectures next winter. It will include Parsons, Anna Dickenson, Murdoch, Willetts, Tilton and Jougle.

THE office of the Waynesburg Republican was entered last week by burglars, who found and took two dollars. The editor has never yet been able to imagine where the burglars found the money.

MR. DAVID ROSE, of Morgan township, Greene county, was shot on the 18th of August, while looking for a bee tree, by a neighbor who was shooting at squirrels. His condition is considered very critical.

THE dwelling of Mr. John Zimmerman, of Valley township, Armstrong county, was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday last. Very few household effects were saved. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

AT the late Perry county court, Mrs. Weaver recovered a verdict of $2,500 damages against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for causing the death of her husband, killed by the cars, near Marysville, about a year ago.

THE Kittanning Republican says: "We regret to learn that the woolen mill of Isaac Kinnard, Esq., located in Burrel township, this county, was totally destroyed by fire on the 18th inst. Mr. Kinnard had but a short time since made extensive improvements about his factory, increasing his facilities for doing work, by adding steam. The loss is a severe one, not only to Mr. Kinnard, but to the neighborhood. There was an insurance of $1,600 on the factory."

THE Washington Reporter, says: Our readers who have suits on either side of which Judge Acheson was concerned before going on the bench, will be pleased to learn that Judge Sterrett, of Allegheny county, will hold a term of court, beginning on the fourth Monday of next November, for the trial of such causes. The Judge, during his former visits to this county disposed of many of this class of causes, but there are still a number upon the docket, and, as this is probably the last time he will be here for that purpose, all persons having such causes will do well to take measures to have them placed upon the trial list for that week.

Thievish Rodents--Strange "Robbery" of Money by Rats.

A few days ago, says the Liverpool Courier, Mr. Astley, hairdresser, of Cateston street, Manchester, placed a sum of money, amounting to £27, between the beam and the rafters of his cellar for safety. The money consisted of four £5 notes, five sovereigns and four half sovereigns, and Mr. Astley's reason for depositing it in what he considered a perfectly safe place was that he expected a gentleman to call upon him on the following day for the payment of a bill. The gentleman did not call, however, until two days had elapsed, and when he did call Mr. Astley proceeded to the cellar to fetch the money. He was very much surprised on discovering that the money was gone. After ruminating for some time in the cellar, Mr. Astley came up stairs, his countenance being so altered that his nearest relation would scarcely have recognized him, and taking his friend outside, he informed him of his serious loss He afterward went to the detective office and reported the robbery to Inspector Henderson, who visited Mr. Astley's premises and questioned the employes, upon whom suspicion fell. Before leaving the cellar, Inspector Henderson inquired whether there were any rats about the place, and on being told that they were very numerous, he expressed his belief that the rats had perpetrated the robbery—a belief which was subsequently found to be well founded—for, on a strict search being made, forty-three fragments of the notes were found scattered about the rafters of the cellar, and one half-sovereign was found upon the beam about half a yard from where Mr. Astley had placed the money. Further search was made for the remainder of the gold, but no more of it was to be found. Inspector Henderson, though well acquainted with the whereabouts of the thieves confessed his inability to bring then to the bar of justice.

A Hartshorn Engine.

A citizen of New Orleans has recently been so successful in experimenting with fluid gas of ammonia, that he claims that there is a probability that it may supersede horse power on street railroads. Liquefied ammonia, when subjected to a heat of sixty degrees Fahrenheit, turns to a vapor which produces a pressure of sixty pounds to the square inch. This pressure is applied like steam, and is subject to the same controlling influences. When intended to be used for the purpose of propulsion, the ammonia is poured into a system of tubes, deposited in a tank of water in such a way that the gas which passes through the cylinder, instead of escaping into the open air, may be carried through the exhaust pipe, and be absorbed by the water. In this manner the ammoniated water is preserved, and being reinstilled, is capable of being used over again several thousand times; wearing out only at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum. The gas is so readily absorbed by the water that it prevents any disagreeable smell or noise of concussion with the air. At the end of each trip, the tubes are re-filled from a stationary reservoir of liquid ammonia, and during the journey the heat lost by the tubes is acquired by the water in the tank, which re-imparts it, and prevents the ammonia from falling below the boiling temperature. The report of an examining committee, headed by General Beauregard, approves of the invention in terms which are too indefinite to be conclusive.

REVOLUTIONS.

SAN DOMINGO, August 28.—The Revolutionists under Cabral have formed a provisional government, having its seat at Las Matas. A new and well organized attack is to be made against the troops of Baez. Baez, on his side, is not idle. He continues making great military preparations in Azna, and the United States war steamer Nantucket is said to have left Samana and to be at present cruising near Azna to co-operate by sea.

LAGUIRA, August 28.—The eastern portion of the Republic continues in a revolutionary state. The government observes great vigilance and is making great efforts to quell the revolution. Two war steamers left Laguira, laden with troops, under General Escobea, who is to reinforce General Victor Rodriquez and endeavor to drive the revolutionists out of Barcelona and the whole eastern department. The government is ordering arms and ammunition from all points.

TERRIFIC HURRICANE AT ST. THOMAS.

ST. THOMAS, W. I., August 22, via Halifax, N. S., August 31.—Another hurricane has swept over this unfortunate island, over-turning every house and laying the place in ruins. Yesterday at about one A. M. a gale broke from the east, and shortly afterwards shifting to the notheast, from which point it blew more fiercely until noon, when the wind veered round slowly to the north and fell upon the island in a terrific hurricane. It then shifted to the northwest, and blew with great violence until five P. M., when there came a lull, which lasted until six P. M. At this hour the hurricane again swept over the island from the south, but its duration was not so long as that previous, nor was its violence so great. Its term of greatest fury lasted only two hours. Then closely followed in the wake of the hurricane the same awful gale from the south and southeast, which raged for several hours during the hurricane in the afternoon. Several shocks of earthquake rendered more dreadful the situation of the people, who were hearing over head the crash of roofs torn by the hurricane, and were obliged to feel at the same time under foot the foundations of their shelters shaken by an earthquake. Hundreds of dwellings have been swept away, and not a house has been left standing undamaged on this distressed island. Some six thousand people have been left houseless and destitute, and nearly one hundred and fifty persons have been killed and mangled or disabled by the houses blown down or bricks and tiles flying thickly all around during the hurricane. Already some thirty corpses have been dragged from under the ruins, which, in the shape of trees, fences, shattered houses, and heaps of bricks and tiles strewn throughout the streets, offer a sight of perfect desolation. There are no casualties to report about the shipping herewith the exception of a British bark loaded with sugars, and riding at anchor at the mouth of the barbor, which broke loose and went adrif towards Rocksail Channel, and is said to have become a total wreck. Two French steamers, recently arrived here, drifted about and got fast aground, but the English steamers Corsica, Tyne and Delta, as well as the American steamer Florida, at anchor, weathered the storm handsomely, the latter, however, having to cut down her masts.

The island of St. Kitts is said to be in ruins, as it was caught first by the hurricane which has just passed over here.

FRANCE.

THE ASSEMBLY DISSOLUTION.

VERSAILLES, August 30.—The object of the dissolution of the French Assembly is settled for the present. At a caucus held to-day by the extreme Left, presided over by Gambetta, his party was found so divided that it was determined to abandon the issue.

PRESS OPINIONS.

PARIS, August 31.—The conservative organs to-day express satisfaction with the progress made yesterday in the Assembly upon the bill for the prolongation of the powers of Thiers, and say that the majority of the Chamber are reconstructed against radicalism, and will support the government and the policy of Thiers. The journals blame the government for giving any consideration to the preamble offered by Vital, which affirms the constituent power of the Assembly and which was adopted at yesterday's session of the Chamber.

THE ASSEMBLY.

VERSAILLES, August 31.—In the Assembly to-day Picard made a fervent appeal for harmony in the Chamber and elsewhere. He said it was the duty of all Frenchmen in the presence of the enemy to forget their dissensions, grasp the hand of fellowship and take all means to strengthen rather than to weaken the power of the government.

The remainder of the preamble in relation to the constituent powers of the Assembly was adopted, and subsequently Dufaure's paragraph eulogizing the conduct of Thiers was carried by a vote of 523 yeas against 37 nays. One hundred members abstained from voting.

GERMANY.

THE GASTEN CONFERENCE.

LONDON, August 30.—The conference at Gastein has confirmed the agreement between Austria and Prussia. In some important principles the policy and details of this agreement were arranged as to the nature of the treaty, but not a formal treaty, as the functionaries whose services would have been necessary to the drawing of a formal treaty were not present, the secret, exact terms, are better kept. The statement of the policy made by the Vienna Cabinet in December last created a situation between Austria and Prussia which called for more accurate definition of their relations than could be secured by the exchange of a diplomatic note. The Gastein conference enabled the Chancellors, by confidential conversations, to reach an understanding as to how the interests of the two powers could be realized to their mutual advantage and how the good understanding might be utilized by dealing together against the other powers. The Roumania Railway difficulty has thus received a satisfactory solution in the interests of general peace. This is regarded as a happy augury for the application of similar joint action in future difficulties. The league for maintaing peace means war against every power that can be provoked to disturb the peace. Russia, knowing the understanding, makes vast preparations for war.

THE CHOLERA.

BERLIN, August 31.—A dispatch from Gumbinneu, a town of East Prussia, says that in the small village of Chimachaw, with a total population of four hundred and seventy-nine, there have been already seventy-nine cases of cholera, forty-six of which terminated fataly.

MEXICO.

REVOLUTION IN OAXACA.

CITY OF MEXICO, August 24.—The Press has announced the breaking out of a revolution in Oaxaca against the State Government, and that Diaez is filled with several hundred men. In a riot against the Protestants at Morelia seven persons were killed. Copies of an agrarian law are scattered all over the country, inciting dissent among the ignorant.

THE ELECTION.

The election of Juarez is more doubtful than ever. Money is freely offered for official positions. Congress will vote and act independent of the vote of the people.

LOCAL REVOLUTIONS.

MONTEREY, August 31.—A local revolution is imminent. Gazamela, the successful gubernatorial candidate in the recent election, has imprisoned the present Governor on a charge of perjury. He is unable to obtain a trial, and has appealed to the people. He is sustained by a party of revolutionists, who are recruiting.

MATAMORAS, August 31.—A revolution is deemed inevitable. There is a division among the liberals. The reactionists are taking heart, and the leaders are organizing for the impending struggle.

POLITICAL

Speech of Senator Thurman at Columbus, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., August 31.—It having been understood that the reports of Senator Thurman's speech, owing to the lateness of the hour he spoke, were imperfect, a revised report has been furnished the Ohio Statesman.

He considered first the claims of the administration to the support of the country on the ground of having restored the rebellious States to their proper relations to the Government. So far as the Republican party in Congress have done their work the effect has been to retard the work of reconstruction, in support of which he referred to the act compelling the formation of new constitutions.

On the New Departure he said:

Now, my friends, it has been common for the Republican party of this county to say that the Democrats have taken a New Departure and that New Departure they allege consists in saying that we have been wrong, and the Republicans have been right. I say there has never been any such confession as that. We are as much opposed to what has been done as when we gave our votes against it. Why, if I should see a man strike another in an unlawful and brutal manner in the street, throttle him and knock him down, and trespass upon his rights, and I should see his wounds and bruises, and see him bleeding, I should be compelled to say that he was down and bleeding. But who would call that a confession that the villain who outraged him had done what was proper? [Laughter.] So when these men throttled the Constitution and ruined the peace of the country—when they made the South almost as ruinous as in the midst of war—we remonstrated and opposed them, and now, because we cannot deny that the thing has been accomplished—because we are compelled to admit the fact that the reconstruction laws have been executed and the amendments to the Constitution fastened upon us—we are told, forsooth, that we admit that the radicals were right and we were wrong. That's logic for you.

The fourteenth amendment to the Constitution was passed. We opposed it. Why did we oppose it? Because it provided that all people in the United States should be equal before the law. There is not one Democrat from the Ohio river to Canada, not one in the United States, opposed to it upon any such grounds. That has always been the law in Ohio; that has always been the law in the Northern States. The Democrats, he said, were opposed to the fourteenth amendment, first, because it disfranchised the men of influence, of intellect, of education, whose aid was most necessary to restore peace to the South; secondly, because the language was ambiguous, and was such as would enable an ambitious President and Congress to usurp the powers that belong to the individual States, and to overthrow every one of the reserved rights of the people of the States. And were we not right? for it is under the ambiguous and loose language of that amendment that the infamous Ku-Klux bill was passed, under a pretense of authority derived from that loose and ambiguous language. If this interpretation were correct, the President would have power in the State of Ohio to displace the Governor, dethrone the Legislature, turn out of office our Judges, and establish martial law from one end of the State to the other, whenever he thinks or pretends to think it is necessary for him to take martial possession of Ohio.

In order to protect the rights of individuals, we were right then in opposing that amendment thus framed and thus phrased the fifteenth amendment. We opposed because it was a fraud upon the people in the way the thing was prepared and carried out, and a direct violation of the solemn pledges of the dominant party made in the platform at Chicago. We oppose it for stronger reasons than that. We said it was perfectly monstrous that we should turn over at least one-half of the Southern States to the control of a race not one in ten of whom could read, much less write, and of whom not one in a thousand had the least idea of the government under which he lived, and under which they were now to discharge the duties of law makers. If the time should come when they should be educated to a proper standard to enable them to exercise this right, with intelligence and to the wellfare of the country, we said it would be right. Now what has been the effect of this in the reconstructed States down South? With their preponderance of negro voters the result has been that they are the worst governed part of God's globe to-day. Those States have been delivered over to the tender mercies of the carpet-baggers and adventurers of the North, and of the meaner men, the scala wags, of the South, and with the negroes in combination with them they govern almost every one of those States. And how do they govern them? When the war ended those States were postrated to a degree we can hardly realize, ravaged by their own army as well as ours, the people were prostrated, their currency was worth nothing, thousands and tens of thousands of their farms lay desolate under the scourge of war; they were ruined in fortune, humbled and prostrate in spirit; that was the time when it behooved us to take them by the hand and help them up; just at this time this Republican party, those carpet-baggers and scala wags, took hold of the government in those States.

As to the thirteenth amendment abolishing slavery, Senator Thurman said they had never made any objection to it, and that no man could point to any act of the Democrats in the Northern States that ever approved slavery.

The rest of the speech was devoted to the review of the finances of the administration and the Ku Klux act

Speech of Hon. Joseph Medill at Columbus, O.

COLUMBUS, August 31.—Hon. Joseph Medill addressed the Ohio Young Men's Republican Club to-night. Reviewing the Democratic financial new departure, as set forth by General Ewing, he contrasted the financial plank in the State platform with the plank in the Vallandigham's platform, showing that while the latter was a return to the ancient faith of the Democracy, and means the honest payment of the national debt, it also means repudiation. Not the least remarkable thing connected with this new financial departure is the fact that only the Ohio Democracy have taken it. The Democratic organization in no other State, west or east, south or north, are advocating in their platform the payment of the debt in irredeemable notes, or a material expansion of the existing currency. The Ohio Democracy must think they had a mighty good hand to play this greenback game alone. The effect of Gen. Ewing's scheme would be to destroy the value of the currency. A note or bond, said the speaker, is worth to the holder that in which it is to be paid, provided the maker is known to be solvent and punctual. If it calls for gold, wheat, cattle, or iron, it is worth what they are worth. If it calls for chips or chaff, it is worth so much; no more. If it is to be paid in another promise, and that promise is redeemable only in the first promise, then it is worth nothing, because it is merely wind redeemable in wind. The interest on such a bubble bond might as well be thirty or thirty-five per cent. as three per cent., as it will cost the maker no more to pay the rate of bubble interest than the other. It is obvious that the authors of the Democratic financial plank have discarded the science of political economy and treat the experience of mankind with contempt. They coolly and concertedly brush away the universal conception of the difference between capital and credit value, and promise money and notes, the nature of gold and that which gives value to a promise to pay. They leave entirely out of sight payment and redemption and teach that the Federal Government has the power to stamp the actual value on that which in itself has none that it can put forth in an almighty fiat, that will transform an airy nothing into an equivalent of all values, or give that which is worthless the purchasing power of solid coin. The Democratic Convention proposes to make the greenback read something like this: The United States promise to pay the bearer ten dollars, payable at the Treasury of the United States at Washington. But this promise is made in a Pickwickian sense, and is never to be redeemed in any tangible substance, especially not in gold or silver. This is the idea, whatever the form of words. It is impossible to conceive any theme more preposterous.

Speech of Gen. B. F. Butler at Worcester, Mass.

WORCESTER, August 30.—General Butler made another political speech here to-night, which was in great part a repetition of the doctrine he enunciated by his speech at Springfield. He made some allusions to his family history, severely handling the Massachusetts newspapers, and referred to his candidacy for Governorship. He renominated Grant for Presidency.

Democratic Senatorial Nominations in Ohio.

TOLEDO, August 31.—The Democratic Senatorial Convention for the Thirty-third Ohio district to-day nominated M. D. Carrington, of Lucas, and W. H. Wheeler, of Hancock counties, to the State Senate.

ST. LOUIS.

Narrow Gauge Railway.

ST. LOUIS, August 31.—Ground was broken yesterday at Columbia, Illinois, twelve miles from here, on the Cairo and St. Louis narrow gauge railroad, and a large force of men immediately put to work. The road will be three feet gauge and completed in two years.

SUPPOSED SUICIDE.

D. J. Kenyon, a merchant tailor of Corning, Iowa, was found dead in his room at the St. Nicholas Hotel yesterday. As a bottle of laudanum was found in his pocket it was supposed he had committed suicide, but the Coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from congestion of the brain. He had been drinking very hard

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.

Late news from Arizona is to the effect that the Indian depredations and murders continue in that territory.

FAIRS.

The State fair grounds at Topeka, Kansas, have been put in order, and preparations are being actively made for the fair. The fair now in progress at Keokuk, Iowa, is largely attended, and the display is very fine.

LOST DIAMONDS RECOVERED.

It will be recollected that Christina Nilsson, while coming to this city from Memphis last April, accidentally dropped some four thousand dollars worth of diamonds from the window of a car on the Iron Mountain Railroad. Parties searched several days for the jewels, but without success, and Miss Nilsson gave them up for lost. Yesterday Mrs. Flynn, wife of a laborer on the railroad, found the gems opposite her door, just outside of Desoto, they having been unearthed by a fractious calf that she had tied to a stake near the railroad track. Miss Nilsson was telegraphed at Newport of the recovery of her treasures, and she replied that she would present the Flynn family with five hundred dollars. The diamonds will be expressed to their owner to-morrow.

ALBANY.

The Quarantine Frauds in New York City.

ALBANY, August 31.—Governor Hoffman to-day replied to the complaints of Chas. H. Marshall & Co. of the exhorbitant charges and malfeasance in office by the Health Officer of the port of New York, Dr. Carnochan, in relation to the case of the ship W. F. Storer, which arrived at New York in April, 1871, with many cases of the worst type of small pox on board. Governor Hoffman presents Dr. Carnochan's explanation on his charges for fumigation, vaccination, medical treatment, etc., as only just and reasonable. He refers the whole to the Quarantine Commissioners for further examination. The Governor says he has no power whatever to suspend or remove the Health Officer, Attorney Champlain and Judge Amasa S. Parker both having given opinions to that effect. The Governor can only recommend to the Senate a removal, if in his judgment it is demanded, but the Senate will not be in session until January, and meantime the Governor invites any written complaint by any citizen of misconduct on the part of the Health Officer, with memorandum annexed of the evidence, promising them immediate attention and complete investigation. The Governor says he cannot consider informal and anonymous accusations made against a public officer through the columns of a newspaper.

BOSTON.

Funeral.

BOSTON, August 31.—The funeral of Rev. Samuel R. Mason, D. D., a victim of the railroad disaster, took place this afternoon in the Baptist church at Cambridgeport. The flags on the public buildings were at half mast, and many places of business were closed. The remains were deposited at Mount Auburn.

THE INQUEST.

The inquest of the Eastern Railroad disaster was continued to-day.

Ashbel S. Brown, engineer of the Pullman train sworn—To the best of my knowledge it was twenty-five minutes past eight o'clock when the collision occurred; started at five minutes past eight from Boston; after I was ready to start the conductor gave a motion to go: Lunt, the depot master, then came alongside of the engine in a hurry and says to me, "Look out for the Saugus branch train;" I said, "All right;" I then started, and the first stop I made was at Prison Point.

VIRGINIA.

Conservative Convention.

RICHMOND, August 31.—The business committee of the Conservative Convention reported a plan for party organization throughout the State, which was adopted. The committee not being prepared to report a platform, it was allowed to sit during the session. The convention resolution inviting Governor Walker to a seat on the platform, which was tabled yesterday, was taken up, and after a spirited discussion was adopted with only three dissenting votes.

REDEMPTION OF BONDS.

Captured Corean Flags.

WASHINGTON, August 31, 1871.

DR. NEWMAN'S LETTER.

The letter of Dr. Newman to the Methodist clergymen—another of which he is known to have written, but which was suppressed—did Mr. Harlan serious injury with the people.

REDEMPTION OF BONDS.

The following notice was issued to-day for the redemption of the five twenty bonds of 1862:

Treasury Department, September 1, 1871.—By virtue of authority given by an act of Congress, approved July 14th, 1870, entitled an act to authorize the refunding of the national debt, I hereby give notice that the principal and accrued interest of the bonds herein below designated, known as 5-20 bonds, will be paid at the Treasury of the United States, in the city of Washington, on or after the first day of December next, and that the interest on said bonds will cease on that day; that is to say, the coupon bonds known as the first series of the act of February 25, 1862, dated May 1st, 1862, numbered as follows: 1 to 30,699 inclusive, $50 each; 1 to 43,572 inclusive, $100 each; 1 to 40,011 inclusive, $500 each; 1 to 74,104 inclusive, $1,000 each; and registered bonds of the same act, 1 to 595 inclusive, $50 each; 1 to 4,103 inclusive, $100 each; 1 to 899 inclusive, $500 each; 1 to 8,906 inclusive, $1,000 each; 1 to 2,665 inclusive, $5,000 each; 1 to 29,06 inclusive, $10,000 each. The amount outstanding embraced in the numbers as above is $100,000,000. The coupon bonds of the act of February 25th were issued in four distinct series. The bonds of the first series, embracing those described, above do not bear a series designation upon them, while those of the second, third and fourth series are distinctly marked on the face of the bonds. United States securities forwarded for redemption should be addressed to the Loan Division, Secretary's Office.

[Signed.] J. U. HARTLY,
Acting Secretary.

THE WEATHER.

The pressure which was central on Wednesday afternoon north of Lake Ontario has moved northeastward beyond our stations. A heavy rain was reported on Wednesday in northern New England. Partially cloudy and clearing weather prevailed to-day from Lake Michigan eastward to the Atlantic, and clear and pleasant weather from this region southward. Cloudy and threatening weather has been reported on the coast of Louisiana, and it is probable that a storm of small dimensions has prevailed on the coast of Texas, but this evening's reports from that State are not yet received. The barometer, after rising in the northwest, has again fallen from Missouri northwards, with fresh southerly winds.

Probabilities.—Clear and cool weather is probable for to-night from New England to Georgia and the Ohio Valley; clear and clearing weather on the lakes; local and light winds and an increased temperature for Friday over the same region; a falling barometer and southerly winds from Lake Huron to Tennessee and westward to Missouri.

FALSE REPORT.

A statement has been made that the San Domingo report is being sent out from the Executive Mansion, thus implying that a general distribution is made of documents. The truth is that the President has mailed only one copy to a correspondent who asked for it, while General Babcock, who considers that the report relieves him from former imputations upon his character, has supplied a few copies to personal friends.

CAPTURED COREAN FLAGS.

The Secretary of the Navy to-day received a consignment of battle flags captured by our naval forces at Corea, with the names of the captors, some of them being presented to individual friends. One, sent to the President, is of blue silk, with a woven representation of a dragon, and that to Secretary Robeson is similar in material and color, with a winged serpent.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Wilson thinks the absence of so many officials from the seat of government is having a serious affect on the party, though he is of the opinion that General Grant will be re-nominated and re-elected.

AQUATIC.

Arrival of the St. Johns Crew.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., August 31.—The St. Johns crew have arrived here from Halifax. Their friends claim that the abuse of them by Halifax papers is unjust.

THE SARATOGA RACES.

SARATOGA, August 31.—The Buffalo boat crew and Poughkeepsie crew have been entered for the four oared race, and J. McCready, of New York, for the single scull race. Up to the present time there are four entries for the four oared race and eleven for the single scull race for the regetta here on the 9th and 11th of September.

THE GREAT FOUR OARED RACE AT HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, August 31.—The great four oared race came off to-day. The water was rough, with a north-easterly breeze and considerable swell. The start took place at a quarter past one. The positions were determined by the drawing of lots. At the start the Renforth crew shot ahead, making 42 strokes. The Tyne crew followed at 41 strokes, the Americans at 44, and the Prior at 40. At a third of a mile the Roche crew gave up. Until nearing the stake boat the English crews were even. Renforth here seemed to mistake the flag. The Winship crew, with a desperate spurt, went past and turned beautifully, distancing their rival considerably. Next to pass was the Prior crew, followed closely by the American. At the fourth mile Renforth was fourth and Barton last. At the fifth mile the Americans made a splendid effort and shot ahead. The Prior crew here came up, and in five minutes the boats were all even. At this point the excitement was intense. From here the Winship crew gained slowly, the Prior crew being close up and the Americans near beside. The Winship crew made a desperate effort, amidst the applause of the crowd, and won the race. The Paris crew also did their very best, and to the delight of the Nova Scotians, came in second, followed closely by the American and Renforth crews. The time of the race is given at forty-five minutes and forty-five seconds.

The scull race takes place early to-morrow, should the weather permit.

CONNECTICUT.

Butler-Hawley Troubles.

HARTFORD, August 31.—Gen. Hawley publishes the following card.

General Butler, in his Worcester speech, fixes upon my change from the Army of the James to Chief of Staff under Gen. Terry in North Carolina, as the time when he displaced me for inefficiency and incompetency. He was relieved from command and sent to Lowell on January 17th, 1864. I did not make that change till more than two weeks afterwards, when Gen. Ord was in command of that army, and Butler had nothing to do with it.

JOSEPH R. HAWLEY.

Chicago and Southwestern Railroad.

CAMERON, Mo., August 31.—The last rail of the Chicago and Southwestern Railroad was laid to day one mile north of Cameron. A large number of people from Leavenworth, Plattsburg, Weston, and this place were in attendance. Speeches were made by Col. John McMichael and George Smith, of Clinton, Col. R. Anthony, of Leavenworth, and others. The last spike was driven by Maj. Ogden, of the firm of Ogden & Ford. This completes the link connecting Leavenworth with the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad.

HARRISBURG.

The Case of Evans.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, August 31, 1871.

In my dispatch of last night I was in error in stating that the Governor hesitated about granting the requisition for the arrest of Evans, the defaulting State agent. I am informed that the requisition will be granted at once. Governor Geary manifests a degree of anxiety over the escape of Evans and will do all in his power to bring him to trial. Evans friends insist that they do not fear the result. Attorney General Brewster has arrived, and proceedings will be commenced against Evans, as soon as he is returned to Harrisburg. The detectives are already after him, and will anticipate the issuing of the Governor's requisition. Mr. Mackey has returned to Pittsburgh to consult his attorney. Evans declared up to the time he left this place that he was ready to stand a trial, and if the courts decided against him, that he would pay the amount claimed at once,

CHICAGO.

The Difficulty in Christ Church.

CHICAGO, August 31.—Bishop Whitehouse publishes in the Tribune this morning a column and a half reply to the recent communication of the wardens of Christ Church, in which they seek to disabuse the Bishop of the statement he has caused to be made public, that the officers of Christ Church had receded from the position taken by the wardens in their letter to the Bishop of the 12th ult., and that they had consented to an absence of their rector from the chancel of Christ Church on the occasion of an Episcopal visitation, and that the candidates prepared by him for confirmation and by him admitted to the communion, shall be presented for that rite by some other clergyman. In his reply Bishop Whitehouse quotes an extract from the letter of Mr. Crane, written to the Bishop, naming the day when they would be glad to receive him at Christ Church. The extract is as follows:

"In the absence of the rector of this parish the wardens give notice that the Right Reverend Bishop of this diocese will hold an Episcopal visitation and administer the sacred rite of confirmation in Christ Church, Chicago, on the fourteenth Sunday after Trinity, being the 10th day of September next, at the usual hour of the morning service, the Bishop having been pleased to change the time from the 13th of August to the 10th of September. I beg you to believe me, very respectfully, your humble servant,

"ALBERT CRANE,
"Warden of Christ Church."

The Bishop insist thats the first fourteen words of the extract warranted the statement that Mr. Cheney would be conveniently absent on the occasion of his visitation. The Bishop also in his reply gives quite a lengthy account of an interview which he had with Mr. Crane, subsequent to the writing of the letter above quoted from, in which he says that Mr. Crane was assured that Mr. Cheney would be absent. The Bishop also asserts that Dr. Kelley during the preceding week came to ask his consent to officiate in Christ Church the following Sunday at the invitation of the Wardens, that Mr. Cheney had been to see Dr. Kelley to urge him to do so. Dr. Kelley replied, in substance, to Mr. Cheney, that he could not compromise himself by any services recognizing Mr. Cheney. To this Mr. Cheney rejoined by declaring that he did not wish any clergyman to be compromised through him with the Bishop; that Dr. K. would observe that the invitation was from the wardens alone, and he was only the bearer of it; that he, Mr. C., expected to be absent, but if by any chance he should be in the church he could not appear to or interfere, but would take his seat in a pew with the congregation. The Bishop also says that "during his interview with Mr. Crane allusion was made to my obtaining possession of the property, and the embarrassment that it might entail in administration of it in consequence of its heavy encumbrances and the failure of income to meet expenses, I took occasion to correct emphatically the utter misconception of that subject. I had nothing whatever to do with the property, and would not consent to touch it in any way even if it were offered, to be freely conveyed to me even as a trust. I stated that any ecclesiastical action of myself or the diocese must be limited to the simple vindication of its right of administration, the cestui que trust being inalienable in a corporation attached to the doctrine and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church under the authority of the constitution and canons of the diocese of Illinois, and subject to the ecclesiastical authorities of this diocese." The rest of the letter of Bishop Whitehouse gives a general statement of his rights and duties as Bishop of Illinois, and his design to vindicate them. He says in conculsion: "You must know that the church in my hands will never voluntarily be submitted to such an anomaly, and that any indignity which in consequence may result, must be at your own responsibility; alone you may not perhaps appreciate that. By thus rejecting the authority of the Bishops and traversing the laws of the diocese, and setting at naught the Catholic discipline, you virtually claim exemption from the church in the diocese of Illinois and arrogate a partial independence wherein principle involves the whole. Plant yourself as an isolated body, and thus furnish a proof that can not be overlooked of malfeasance in the trust of the property corporate. I beg you to ponder the words of the Supreme Bench, next to the diffusion of Christian faith and morals. The church has in view the promotion of union and harmony, and order and subordination through every part of the great association for whose government they are intended. The separating body cannot, by its own will, nor by assuming an internal organization and conforming to the rules and discipline and usages of the church, nor by placing over it a preacher of its own choice, nor by claiming to be the true and only society of the church become, ipso facto, an original portion of the general body or church, until recognized by the proper authority of the church, and that it would stand as an isolated body in connection with the general organization, and independent of it. It is understood that Mr. Cheney and Mr. Crane will reply to the Bishop.

Rev. Dr. Cheny has prepared a card in reply to one sentence in Bishop Whitehouse's communication which appears in this morning's papers. He quotes the following sentence from the communication "Dr. Kelley during the week preceding came to my house to ask my consent to his officiating at Christ Church the Sunday following. Dr. Kelley laid before me for my guidance, substantially, the following facts: That Mr. Cheny had been to see him and bore a note from the wardens, in which they say that they would be pleased to have him (Dr. Kelley, officiate in Christ Church on the next Sunday if he could do so. Dr. Kelley replied, in substance, to Mr. Cheney that he (Dr. K.) could not compromise himself by any services recognizing Mr. Cheney. To this Mr. Cheney rejoined by declaring that he did not wish any clergyman to be compromised through him with the Bishop; that Dr. K. would observe that the invitation was from the wardens alone, and he was only the bearer of it; that he (Mr. C.) expected to be absent, but if by any chance he should be in the church, he would not appear to interfere, but would take his seat in a pew among the congregation."

To this statement Mr. C. replies: "No man who knows me could believe that I could take so absurdly inconsistent a position as that indicated by the closing sentence of the above. Had any contingency occurred which enabled me to spend the Sunday in the city I should certainly have informed Dr. K. that such was the case, and that I should not need the services he so kindly consented to give. Upon calling on that gentleman this morning he assures me that he never represents me as making such a statement, but only told the Bishop that he (Dr. K.) supposed that in the event of my being in the church I would absent myself from the chancel."

RAILROAD COMPLETED.

The Chicago and South western railroad has been completed. The road will now be formally opened for business under a lease held by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad.

NEW YORK.

Marine Disaster—Stabbed in an Insane Asylum—Suicide—A Diamond Smuggler Sent to Jail—Dr. Rosenzweig's Troubles—The City Accounts—The Yearly Cotton Statement—Judicial Matters—Subscriptions Closed.

NEW YORK, August 31, 1871.

MARINE DISASTER.

The steamship Java, which left Liverpool on the 19th of August, ran into the Norwegian bark Manta on the night of the 23d inst., and sent her down with eleven lives on board. The Manta was making a trip from Portsmouth to Quebec. She had on board twelve hands, of whom but one was saved by the boats sent out by the Java. The Java was but slightly injured. When she was out four days a sailor fell overboard and was lost.

SUICIDE.

The residents of Paterson, N. J., were thrown into a state of great excitement this morning by a rumor that a friend of Miss Alice Bowlesby, Walter Conkling, living in that city, had committed suicide. It was soon ascertained that the rumor was well founded. The young man deliberately shot himself with a revolver in the throat and neck, and died in less than fifteen minutes. He was a son of Alderman Conkling, of Paterson, and was employed at Sale's silk factory. Various stories are in circulation as to the circumstances which led to the act, but the belief is that it was prompted by his connection with the Bowlseby affair. At the police headquarters in this city this afternoon, before the news of the suicide had been received, it was known that orders had been given to detectives to seek for and arrest young Conkling to-night.

COURT MATTERS.

In the case of James Fisk, Jr., vs. the Union Pacific Railroad, demurrers, on the ground of improper joining of causes, actions were filed to-day in the Circuit Court by the defendant's order.

In the Cornell mandamus, proceedings were settled to-day by Judge Sutherland He made very little change in the form of the order, which is to the effect that the Court-house Commissioners are directed to issue a requisition on the Comptroller for the sum of $34,725, and that the Comptroller immediately raise that amount on stock in this city, as directed by the statute of April, 1871. The Counsellor, Comptroller and Commissioners asked for a stay of proceedings on the mandamus until an appeal, which they intend to make, can be decided. The Judge said he would decide on Monday next.

THE CITY ACCOUNTS.

Further accounts of the expenditures sent to the Board of Supervisors by the City Controller are given in the Times today, from which it appears that warrants were issued to the New York Printing Company for printing in the years 1869, 1870, and part of 1871, to the amount of $1,407,269. The amount paid out for stationary is $871,393, and for advertising $369,184. The Times says that a recapitulation of what was paid out as expenditures under the heads of printing, stationery and advertising will show an amount of nearly $3,000,000; that of this amount nearly $2,000,000 went to the New York Printing Company, Manufacturing Stationers Company and Transpirations.

DR. ROSENZWEIG'S TROUBLES.

Doctor Rosenzweig is much depressed in spirits by the developments now being made, and his inquiries are anxious concerning additional evidence obtained. This morning, in consequence of fresh discoveries by the police, Rosa Rosenzweig, a daughter of the Doctor, was arrested and locked up in the Eighteenth precinct station house. Captain Cameron refused to state the specific charge against her, but it is reported that evidence has been gained of her complicity in the matter.

THE IOWA SENATORSHIP.

A telegram to the Herald from Washington reports that the Hon. James F. Wilson, who arrived in that city yesterday, reports that Wm. B. Allison is almost sure of being elected United States Senator from Iowa.

DIAMOND SMUGGLER SENT TO JAIL.

H. C. Jesticer, charged with conspiring with Augustus H. Radcliff to smuggle diamonds from London to this city, has been surrendered by his bondsman, and sent to the county jail.

STABBED IN INSANE ASYLUM.

Dr. L. Parson, in charge of the insane asylum on Blackwell's Island, was stabbed in the neck by one of the patients while going his rounds. The wound is considered dangerous.

SUBSCRIPTIONS CLOSED.

The stock subscription books of the Viaduct Railway were closed to-day. Judge Hilton declined to give the amount of subscriptions.

THE CITIZENS' MEETING.

Ex-Mayor Havemeyer will preside at a meeting of citizens in September, in reference to the corruption of the city government.

YEARLY COTTON STATEMENT.

The following is the yearly cotton statement: Total receipts from all ports, 3,986,874 bales; exports to Great Britain, 2,376,805, and to the continent, 788,893.

NEW ORLEANS.

Gubernatorial Troubles.

NEW ORLEANS, August 31.—During the absence of Governor Warmouth, Lieut. Governor Dunn pardoned a convict and notified the Governor of his action. A spicy correspondence ensued, which has just been published. The Governor disapproves of the action of the Lieutenant Governor in taking charge of the executive office. He repudiates his acts. The Secretary of State will be instructed not to record them, and continues: "When I intend absenting myself from the State under such circumstances as to render necessary the services of the Lieutenant Governor, I shall do myself the honor to officially inform you. Until such time I can but regard any act performed by you in the capacity of Acting Governor as an intrusion calling for an immediate revocation and rebuke. Harry Hews, whose pardon you inform me you have granted, will be rearrested and recommitted to serve out the sentence imposed upon him by the court, your interposition being regarded as officious and wholly uncalled for." Lieutenant Governor Dunn, replying, says: "In the future, as in the past, I shall fearlessly assume and conscientiously perform the duties devolving upon me under the constitution. The ordinary courtesies that obtain among State officials should have induced you always to have notified me of your intended absence from the State, but your neglect in this particular, while very damaging to you as a gentleman, in no sort relieves me from the obligation imposed upon me by the constitution in your absence nor invalidates any act performed by me as Acting Governor. Harry Hewes, in my judgment, has been legally pardoned, and if your Excellency will not consider it officious for me to express an opinion, I would respectfully suggest that you are acting outside of the constitution and laws whenever you attempt, without additional offense, to defraud him of his liberty, and such an attempt on your part will justly subject you to a rebuke from the sovereign people of Louisiana. In conclusion, permit me respectfully to decline accepting your Excellency as my exemplar in either modesty, courtesy, propriety or official duty."

BUILDING LOTS AND
Houses and Lots,
ON
PENN AVENUE AND BUTLER ST.,
AT AUCTION.

On TUESDAY, September 5, at 2 o'clock, will be sold on the premises, the following described property, situated on Penn avenue and Butler street, about a hundred yards above the forks of the road, viz.: 1 lot fronting on Penn avenue, 72 by 75 feet, on which is erected a two story double Frame Dwelling House of 9 rooms, 2 attics and cellar, and a stable, all in good condition. Also, one lot fronting 24 feet on Penn avenue and Butler street, with a depth of 138 feet, on which is erected a small frame building. Also, 1 lot fronting on Butler street, 24 by 85 feet, on which is erected a two story brick, containing store room, five dwelling rooms and beer vault.

Also, 3 vacant lots, each fronting 24 feet on Butler street, by 69 to 85 feet in depth. The property entire is well adapted for a hotel, large boarding house, or lager beer garden.

The immense travel consequent upon the introduction of Nicholson pavement upon Penn avenue makes this a most important point for these businesses. As the owner of this property is leaving the city, a splendid chance for purchase will be given. If not sold as a whole, will be sold in divisions named above. Easy terms and immediate possession.

The vacant lots are most desirable for business houses, the location being a growing business centre. Special public attention is invited to this sale.

WHAT does our Wood street neighbor think of the Loan now?

THE Post calls the members of the Young Men's Christian Association, fanatics.

WE are waiting with patience for the Post to publish the Chronicle's reply on the City Hall question. Let us have it, neighbor.

ANDREW JOHNSON totally repudiates the "New Departure," and says he intends to fight the Fifteenth Amendment till he dies. So do all Democrats, if they were only honest enough to say so.

FOUR volumes and a half are the dimensions of Theodore Tilton's letter on the woman suffrage question, addressed to Charles Sumner. Even its author shudders at the thought of it and prints an apology for it on another page of the same paper.

HON. COLUMBUS DELANO, Secretary of the Interior, denies that he is a candidate for the United States Senatorship, and announces his determination to withdraw from political life as soon as President Grant will permit him. He has proved a faithful officer, and his character is unimpeachable.

SUBSCRIPTIONS to the government five per cent. funding loan closed on Monday, the syndicate having received large orders which were in excess of the allowance given them. The market is ripe for the four-and-a-half per cents, and we hope they will be forthcoming at an early day. The year 1871 will probably see the entire loan placed, including the four per cents. Thanks to the judgment and discretion of our rulers.

SEVERAL Georgia Democratic journals coincide with the demand of the Richmond Whig, for the payment, to the South, by the general Government, the amount of their loss by the emancipation of their slaves. This is part of the Southern Democratic game, and the payment of the Confederate bonds is another. Should they gain power, they will force the issue, or repudiate the national obligations. Mark the prediction.

WE dare the Post to publish our articles entire, from which it is continually printing garbled extracts. A dishonest trickster would resort to such mean practices, but no journalist who has any respect for himself, would use such base, cowardly, and dishonest misrepresentations, as the editor of the Post appears to delight in. He is a fit subject to direct the affairs of the Janus-faced party, of which he is professedly a member. He is the same young beardless youth, who a little while ago wished to be "indoctrinated in the theory of office-holding," for the purpose of clutching the "shattered emblems of our glorious nationality," and in doing so, immortalize himself, by singing as he crunched the official acorns with his mates, "root hog or die." Uriah, 'umble young man, you are at it again. Be careful.

SOME days ago we called the Philadelphia Press to account for leaving Pittsburgh out in its comparative health list of large American cities. We at that time gave the figures to prove Pittsburgh to be the healthiest city in the country, and at the same time we alluded to the fact that, Philadelphia always ignored the Iron City when alluding to the great cities of America. To that allusion, we presume, we are now indebted for the following little bit of justice done to our city in the Philadelphia Press, a paper which never could be induced to spell Pittsburgh with its proper terminal h:

Pittsburg by the census returns, which arbitrarily limit her population to the lines of the corporation, is not given proper credit for her position as a leading American city. By the census returns of the different cities she is set down as having about 90,000 population, and in rank as the eleventh or twelfth. Her population as is well known, overruns into numerous suburbs, the most populous of which are Allegheny and Birmingham. These, as well as the smaller towns, are really a part of the city proper, and, united, entitle our western metropolis to rank after St. Louis and before Cincinnati, New Orleans, San Francisco and Buffalo. The following table will show its relative rank after New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Baltimore, and Boston:

County.	City.	Present Population.	Incr ase since 1860
Cook	Chicago	350,296	205,283
St. Louis	St. Louis	339,774	149,250
Allegheny	Pittsburg	262,383	83,552
Hamilton	Cincinnati	260,617	44,207
New Orleans	New Orleans	191,382	16,831
Erie	Buffalo	176,930	34,959
S. Francisco	S. Francisco	149,482	92,677
Wayne	Detroit	119,041	43,837
Jefferson	Louisville	118,956	29,552

SECRETARY BOUTWELL is expected to speak in Ohio in a short time. No one is better able to address the people on the questions of finance and revenue than he. His influence will be potential, wherever he is heard, as the people have full confidence in his knowledge and honesty. We hope he may be induced to give us a speech, as he passes through, and to that end we would request the Republican Committee on Speakers and Meetings to address him on the subject. We understand his policy is favorable to a further reduction of taxation to the extent of fifty million dollars per annum. By the way, as the present canvass is an impersonal one, and must be fought on issues, and the different policies of the two parties can we not secure the services of such men in addition to Boutwell, as Morton, Delano, Colfax, Blaine, and others, to address us on the important subjects of finance, taxation, revenue, etc? This is what the people want, and we would suggest that it be resorted to, instead of the usual ward meetings, where these subjects would not be attended to properly. The people want information from those who are competent to give it, and it should be furnished to them by our leading public men. We would suggest to the County Committee the propriety of holding two or three mass conventions during the canvass, at which, addresses from these, or other leading men could be had. In our judgment this would accomplish more than the usual tame ward and district meetings, whilst it would tend to educate the whole people on these important matters. In another column, it will be noticed that the County Committee has been called to meet on Tuesday next, and we understand a vigorous canvass will be made from now until election day. To this end we urge every Republican to go to work for our ticket, and not to cease until the second Tuesday of October. Much depends upon the work done here, both at this election, and at the one in the succeeding year. Pennsylvania is promised by a large and increased majority, both for Stanton and Beath this fall, and for General Grant in 1872. Let every patriot do his utmost.

THE position of the Ohio Democracy, as represented by Mr. Ewing, is favorable to the chimerical platitudes of George W. Pendleton and his greenback problem. We wonder whether the people of Pennsylvania or Ohio are ready to endorse such plain, barefaced repudiation. The Pendleton plan of paying off the national debt is nothing more nor less than practical repudiation of the nation's honest debts. It is forcing one to take pay in scrip, with no time or plan of redemption, for that which has an established market value. It is flooding the country with a currency which would break with its own weight, till it would not be worth ten cents on the dollar. This is probably just the end that Democracy would desire for our national obligations; for then they would be placed on an equal basis with the Confederate bonds. This being accomplished, the road would be a short one to the payment of the one with the other, or the complete repudiation of the entire indebtedness. This is the position of the Ohio Democracy to-day, and the same results will follow in this State, if the direction of affairs is entrusted to them. Opposite to this is the policy of Republicanism, honestly collect and appropriate the revenues, economically conduct every branch of the government, and gradually reduce the debt, thus lessening with each year, the burdens of the people. Far better would it be for the nation to adopt the dishonest plan of Andy Johnson, viz. pay the interest, until it amounts to the principal loaned originally, then cancel the obligation at once and call the thing square, rather than this wicked and shameful deceit of the Ohio Democracy. Both are equally dishonest, but the Johnson plan excels the other in the matter-of-fact way it disposes of the debt. If Democracy wish to espouse repudiation of the National obligations, why do they not do so openly and courageously? Why not take the ground at once that the debt is illegal, and therefore void? This would be no worse than their position a year ago, North, and their present position South, in reference to negro suffrage and the Fourteenth Amendment. It would have the merit of candor, which cannot be claimed for the Ohio financial scheme of wholesale robbery of the people. It is a skillful attempt to deceive under the guise of paying the bonds. It is drawing the life blood with a fine stiletto, whilst the other would be the more open and manly shoulder blows of the athlete. But this would not suit the purpose of the Democracy. They would kill, whilst they would feign to cure. They would bankrupt the government in a twelvemonth with their attempts to be just. Are they to be trusted?

DR. GROSS AND THE SUNDAY QUESTION.

In the very heated race among several gentlemen for the Republican nomination for the office of Mayor of the city, the press has almost unanimously withheld its influence from any individual contestant, preferring to permit the people to use their own good judgment in making the selection. The Commercial yesterday, however, broke silence, and, while not asserting preference for any one of the candidates, pours what it thought to be a broadside of small shot into Dr. A. H. Gross, who has the fortune, or misfortune according to the ideas of our contemporary, to be a German, and to receive the support of two of the daily German papers for the office. We have studiously avoided participating in the contest, and feel that we can afford to stand by and see fair play all around; and hence we must denounce the attempt of the Commercial to create an erroneous and highly prejudicial impression regarding either Dr. Gross, or any of the other gentlemen named for the nomination. It assumes a virtuous regard and concern for the welfare of the religious element of society, and, after indulging in a piece of sophistry, charges, in an indirect manner, that Dr. A. H. Gross is thoroughly imbued with the alleged German ideas on the observance of the Sabbath, and will use his police force to carry them out if he obtains the office. The malignity of the unwarrantable insinuation is palpable, especially since Dr. Gross has never expressed himself in any such manner, and has ever stood high in the estimation of all citizens, at whose hands he has been frequently honored and trusted with public office and he never betrayed them. Even should he hold to such doctrines on the Sabbath question, all citizens know that as the sworn chief magistrate of the city, he would be compelled to execute the laws just as he finds them laid down in the statute books. No other officer could do more, and intelligent people will laugh at the alarm manifested by the Commercial over the fact that Dr. Gross happens to be a German citizen.

We are inclined to think the charge of the Commercial was instigated solely by malice, and not at all in the interest of the Sabbath observance. Possibly Dr. Gross, like many other Republicans, failed to appreciate any influence that paper might claim to have, and declined to solicit its advice or assistance during the campaign. Below we print an emphatic denial of the charge trumpeted by the Commercial:

TO THE PUBLIC.

A translation of an article from the Volksblatt having appeared in the Commercial of this date, accompanied by certain strictures well calculated to misrepresent me in the present canvass, I desire to state that no German citizens, or committee of citizens, ever demanded a pledge from me in regard to the proper observance of the Sabbath in the event of my election to the chief magistracy of this city.

On the contrary, in every conversation had with my German fellow-citizens upon the subject, they have ever recognized the fact, that the mayor of the city is bound to execute the law as he finds it. Moreover, I claim that I am not responsible for the editorial opinions of the Volksblatt any more than for those of the Commercial.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Allegheny County Democracy met in the Court House on Monday last, and placed a county and legislative ticket in the field. The viva voce system of voting for nominees was voted down, so great was the anxiety on the part of the majority to mark for the nominations to what must prove empty honors. The President was severely sarcastic when he addressed the two sets of persons present, as "gentlemen, and fellow Democrats." He evidently saw that such a proper distinction should be made between the two classes. Some of the representatives of Allegheny county Democracy were unable to be present, owing to the proximity of sundry and divers houses which had been licensed before the present Board of Commissioners were inducted into office.

The convention was, as is usual with these annual feasts of the "true blues," marked by much disorder and confusion. The principal noticeable feature was the evident desire of all who had any regard for themselves and their characters, to avoid a nomination. The ticket is very weak, not one strong man on it, and as a whole is a sad contrast to the one of last year, headed by such perfect and competent gentlemen as Major T. Brent Swearengen and Malcom Hay, Esq. One other feature we must not forget to mention, as it evidently proves that "the noblest Roman of them all," has given up all hopes of Allegheny county Democracy. We speak of the absence of the old chivalric gentleman Benton Kerr, Esq., from the convention, a fact which has no parallel within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." In this "departure" from the time honored custom we mourn for the joys of the past, and join with our friends in shedding tears for its occurrence. Are we no more to listen to the silver tongued orator from "Woods Run," as he launches his maledictions upon the "unrepentant Radicals?" Are our ears no more to be beguiled with the pure utterances of his fertile and ponderous pen? Sad day for Democracy if this should be so. But surely the lingering echoes of Benton's eloquence will come again, with the annual recurrence of the barren feast, to cheer the heart and inspire the soul of poor sad Democracy. We hope that this may be so, as we know of no one among them, upon whose shoulders the mantle of his imperishable greatness can, with any justice, fall. Before closing this brief notice of the convention, we desire to address a few words to those who have been so extremely fortunate as to secure the endorsement of the Democracy on this occasion. Upon you, gentlemen, devolves the duty of maintaining the dignity and time-honored character of the Democratic name. Upon you is thrust the glorious privilege of self sacrifice for the old cause. Never let the banner trail in the dust, but always keep it "full high advanced." Visit your friends; visit them often, and weep with them over the misfortune of your lot being cast among so many "irrecoverable Radicals." Mourn with them because the glorious army of the Democracy is growing with each year "small by degrees and beautifully less," within our county. Comfort them, sooth them, and assure them that inasmuch as others who have gone before, from time immemorial, have been slain on the altars of Democracy, by the merciless Radicals of our county, you too are prepared to offer yourselves a willing sacrifice for the old cause. Do this and your fame will be secured—until the closing hours of the second Tuesday of October next. After that, you may retire beneath the blissful mantle of obscurity like those of your party who have gone before.

GENERALITIES.

A COMMITTEE has been formed at Frankfort-on-the-Main for getting up an international dog exhibition.

MR. GEORGE MACDONALD'S latest novel is called "The Vicar's Daughter," and has the same characters that are so familiar to the readers of the "Annals of a Quiet Neighborhood." It is about to be published as a serial in Old and New.

AN INSANE Wisconsin woman threw three of her children into a forty-foot well, and was about to cast the rest after them when she was discovered and the act prevented. The three were all taken out alive, and only one was seriously hurt.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. complains very seriously of a scarcity of water, occasioned by a protracted drougth. The Democrat says that no rain of consequence has fallen within the month. Wells in the city are becoming dry and cisterns empty, and in the country streams of even considerable size have been reduced to rivulets, and ponds and brooks have in many places failed altogether.

THE Paris Siecle contains an item of news very curious if true. It says that in clearing the ground for the erection of the new schools in the Thirteenth arrondissement a quantity of securities representing a value of 5,500,000 francs were found concealed underneath some stones. This property is supposed to have been stolen from the Ministry of Finance, and has been given up to the authorities by the finder.

THE editor of the Santa Fe Democrat prints the particulars of the rascalities of the New York thieves and their robbery of the city treasury, and improves the opportunity to launch his anathemas at the robbers, whom he calls all sorts of hard names, under the impression that they are Republicans. If that editor ever finds out anything of the truth, we may look for a sudden departure by his paper on that topic.

"THE Battle of Dorking" has had its effect, seen in the fact that the Duke of Wellington has offered a prize of £100 for the best military essay on the subject of "the system of field manoeuvres best adapted for enabling our troops to meet a Continental army." The essays are to be forwarded to Colonel Hamley, to whom is attributed the authorship of the little book which has brought "a flush of annoyance" to the cheek of many noble Britons who never, never, never will be slaves.

A SMALL Colorado boy, who had been out playing, ran into the house in a state of great excitement, saying he had seen some antelopes in a gulch near by. At his entreaty, his mother went out to look at them, but nothing of the kind was to be found. She became incredulous, and said at last: "I don't believe you saw any antelopes; it must have been your imagination, my child!" To this, the little mountaineer indignantly responded: "Humph! I guess my imagination isn't white behind!"

ONE of the last humorous papers has a very funny cut. It illustrates this scene: An old gent is walking in his garden. Presently the milkman comes along, outside the high garden wall, and gives his customary yell. Old gent hears something, but being very deaf, is unable to make out just what is wanted; so he puts his ear trumpet in place, and elevating the bell edge over the wall exclaims: "Here." Milkman takes it for a dish and empties a quart of milk into the old gent's ear, and goes about his business. It is about as ludicrous an incident as can be imagined.

THE levee between Carrollton and Camp Parapet, seven miles above New Orleans, has caved in. Gen. M. Jeff Thompson says it is entirely within the protection levees of the city, and a crevasse at this point one-half as large as the late one at Bonnet Carre would give good boating on St. Charles street and a genuine Holland overflow, with its incidental loss of human life over that portion of the city beyond Claiborne street. It would put the water in the city much higher than did the Suave crevasse in 1849, because it is within the line of Camp Parapet and Metairie Ridge.

A NEW and mysterious enemy of sheep, more fatal even than the murderous dogs, has made its appearance and greatly ravaged the flocks of Manitowoc, in Wisconsin. The animal being found dead, no marks of violence are observed, save a small hole behind the ear, from which the blood has been sucked. This has led to the conclusion that the destroyer is a kind of bat, or, more properly speaking, vampire—a creature which even men may fear, since it may not have an exclusive taste for the vital fluid of the muttons. This with the curculio and potato bug, renders our present assortment of noxious vermin very complete.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Cincinnati Commercial thus epitomizes President Grant's administration: "I think him a good man, and his administration has certainly accomplished a good deal. It has been economical, honest and faithful. Thieves have been put out of office, and better men put in their places; at any rate the latter have not robbed the people as their predecessors under Johnson. Boutwell's financial policy, though open to objection, has been pretty successful. The Indian policy recommends itself to every body, as does the Washington treaty, and the appointment of the Civil Service Commission.

THE following sentence, of only forty-eight letters, contains every letter of the alphabet: "John P. Brady gave me a black walnut box of quite a small size."

The stanza subjoined is a specimen of both lipogrammatic and pangrammic ingenuity, containing every letter of the alphabet except e. Those who remember that e is the most indispensable letter, being much more frequently used than any other, will perceive the difficulty of such composition:

A jovial swain, may rack his brain,
And tax his fancy's might,
To quiz in vain, for 'tiz most plain
That what I say is right.

STARTLING FORGERIES.

Wall St. Loses $80,000 in an Hour—An Unsuccessful Swoop for a Quarter of a Million—"Raised" Checks, and Forged Certification.

[From the New York Tribune Aug. 30.]

An extraordinary excitement was produced in Wall-st. yesterday afternoon by the announcement that the firm of F. H. Smith & Co., brokers, of Exchange-place, had lost $50,000 gold, by a forgery perpetrated by Abram Van Saun, employed as a clerk by C. M. Harris & Co., brokers of No. 26 Broad-st. Van Saun, acting for Harris & Co., had bought $50,000 gold on Monday from F. H. Smith, which in the usual course of business was to be delivered yesterday. The purchase was consummated yesterday, soon after 2 P. M., Van Saun receiving from Smith one check for $20,000, gold, drawn by Morton, Bliss & Co., on the Bank of New York, and Treasury certificates for $30,000, gold; and paying therefor a check drawn by C. M. Harris & Co. (whose firm name he was authorized to sign,) on the Continental Bank, for $56,375 currency, and apparently certified by Mr. Timpson, the cashier of that bank. Mr. Smith at once took the check to the Continental Bank and was there informed that the certification was a forgery, and a clumsy one at that. He rushed back to Harris & Co.'s office to find Van Saun, but that person had in the meantime gone to the Bank of New York, cashed the check for $20,000, gold, and disappeared. As he left the bank, one of the tellers remarked to another, "How fast that man goes?"

As news of the affair spread, a great crowd assembled in front of No. 26 Broad street, and swarmed upon the steps leading to the basement in which the little office of Harris & Co. is located. The firm was formerly known as Van Saun & Son, but the younger Van Saun having failed in business as a broker last year, the elder formed a partnership with Mr. Harris, and the firm retained the son as a clerk. Mr. Harris appeared to have been unconscious of any impending trouble and to have quietly sauntered up town a few minutes before the forgery was announced. In the absence of both partners, the detective employed by the Continental Bank took possession of the office. Mr. Smith reported his loss to the police headquarters through Detective Elder on duty on Wall street, and within a few minutes after the discovery of the forgery, orders were sent out from the Central office to have the principal avenues of escape from the city watched, so as to capture Van Saun if possible. In the office was found the ribbon-stamp which had been used in forging the certificate of the Continental Bank. It was also ascertained that Van Saun had obtained at the Continental Bank, yesterday at about 10 A. M., a certified check for $23, making the explanation that he wished to send the money to his wife, who was in the country. He is believed to have used the signature of the cashier, thus obtained, as a copy in forging the certificate upon the check given to Mr. Smith. It is evident that Van Saun had expected that the forged check would take the usual course, through the clearing-House, before reaching the Continental Bank, and that he would thus have nearly twenty-four hours start before discovery. Mr. Smith, however, shared the general suspicion as to Van Saun's character which had been excited by his alleged connection with various discreditable transactions, but the influence of this suspicion was not sufficiently strong to induce Mr. Smith to verify the signature until it was too late.

The Van Sauns, father and son, were engaged in business as collection agents, in Hanover street, for nearly twenty years, and have a wide acquaintance in business circles. The son has acquired an evil reputation by alleged dabbling in the stolen-bond business; and the circumstances attending his failure, last year, while a member of the Gold Board, caused a further stigma to be attached to his name. It was reported during the afternoon that Van Saun, acting as if for Harris & Co., had bought other lots of gold, amounting to nearly $200,000, but that the sellers refused to deliver the gold because they were not satisfied with the checks offered by Van Saun. The theory of some of the detectives is that Van Saun, in his dealings in stolen bonds, had come in communication with certain criminals, with whose aid a grand swoop upon Wall street was planned. The full extent of the losses by his operations is, of course, not yet known; but the unskillfulness of the forgery in the case of the check upon the Continental Bank precludes the idea that any well-known "scratcher" was concerned in this instance.

Simultaneously with the announcement of the Van Saun forgery, information was received of the perpetration of a series of forgeries upon certificates of deposit given by J. J. Cisco & Co. That firm gave a certificate of deposit, on the 24th inst., to a person calling himself "P. Cox," for $100; another, to the same person, on the 25th, for $1,250; and another, on the 26th, to "G. R. Porter," for $104. Yesterday Clark, Dodge & Co. received from Lewis Johnson & Co., of Washington, for collection, and returned to Cisco & Co., by whom it purported to have been given, a certificate of deposit for $17,500. This was found to have been "raised" from one of those originally given to "P. Cox." Soon after a telegram was received from the Bank of the Metropolis at Washington asking if a certain certificate of deposit for $42,000 was good. It was found that this also had been "raised" from one of those given to "P. Cox;" and, a little later, came an inquiry from the First National Bank of Washington, in regard to a certificate of deposit for $43,000, and this was found to be that originally given by Cisco & Co. to "G. R. Porter" for $104. The forgers appear to have obtained $17,500 from Lewis Johnson & Co., at Washington, but were unsuccessful, it is believed, in the attempt to realize upon the other certificates. The description given of "P. Cox" is that he is of low stature, with dark hair and eyes, sallow complexion, smooth face, and is apparently an Irishman. The forgery of the certificate for $17,500 is so well executed as to make it certain that experts were at work in this case.

Still another check forgery case has been given to a detective employed by a leading banking-house to work up, the amount involved being nearly $7,000. The losers suppress the details for the present. A critical examination of the check, however, shows that this, too, was the work of a most skilful hand, not a suspicion of its fraudulent character having arisen until too late.

The Van Saun and other forgeries continued to be the subject of eager comment among large groups of brokers and others in the vicinity of the Stock Exchange, up to a late hour yesterday afternoon. There seemed to be no disposition to censure Mr. Harris in connection with the affair, except for ill-judged confidence in Van Saun. A reckless broker's clerk named Scates, attempted toward evening to circulate confusing statements in reference to the affair, seemingly for purely mischievous purposes; and, if he had been engaged at his discreditable work throughout the entire afternoon, some of the wild stories afloat might be accounted for. The office of C. M. Harris & Co. was closed soon after 3 o'clock, by the elder Mr. Van Saun.

A Fiendish Murder.

(From the Mason City, Ill., Independent, Aug. 25.)

On Sunday night last, one of the most horrible tragedies that ever came to our knowledge was enacted on the C. A. & J. Railroad, about one mile north of Petersburg. Various reports are in circulation concerning the particulars of this bloody transaction, but the facts, as near as we can learn, are substantially as follows:

"Among those aboard the mail train when it left Petersburg at 10:12 P. M., were two particular young men, to us unknown, De Witt Gardner, and a female. When a short distance this side Petersburg, one of these young men was with Gardner on the front platform of the car, and the other kept the female engaged in conversation, so that her attention might not be attracted by anything transpiring outside the car. Whilst crossing the bridge over the Sangamon, Gardner received a violent blow from a hatchet, which knocked him off the platform. It is reasonably assumed that two or three accomplices were in waiting, who carried Gardner to the river bank, beat him most brutally, placed him in a small boat, rowed him out to a large pile of stones around the middle pier, dipped him into the water, then laid him upon the rocks, and, doubtless, left him for dead. He was found the next morning by a laborer, taken to Petersburgh, and was afterwards brought to the residence of his brother, Giles Gardener, in this city, where he died on Thursday last. He was unconscious from the time he was found. There was a terrible gash on the back part of his head, and he seemed to be covered from head to foot with severe bruises, as if he had been beaten for several minutes with heavy clubs. He was a most shocking sight. Few persons have nerves strong enough to have endured so horrible a spectacle but for a moment. He was delirious at times, would make many inarticulate sounds, and would occasionally mention the names of certain persons, and piteously beg them to have mercy on him, and not to strike him any more.

"From information we have received, but which we deem it imprudent to give to the public, we doubt not that every one of the villains engaged in this fiendish affair can be apprehended and made to suffer the severe penalty of the law, which they greatly deserve.

STATISTICS OF HOMICIDE.

Number of Persons Killed by Others in the States and Territories During the Year Ending May 31, 1879.

NOTE—Returns from a few counties not yet received may slightly change this statement. "Killed by Indians" are included in "homicides."

SPEAKING of a shooting affray in that city last Wednesday, the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin says; "In cases of this kind, because of the unwillingness of these men who come from the South of Europe, people of the Latin race, to tell upon one another, it is almost impossible to obtain the real facts. This is strikingly illustrated in the history of one of the men named above, Francisco Palmesano. About eight months ago he was brought to the police station, severely wounded by a cut with the knife. He refused to tell anything about it; pretended not to know who cut him, and scarcely knew his own name. While lying at the station a man visited him and nursed him with care. This stranger actually sucked the blood from the wound with his mouth, and when asked his name answered, with a shrug of his shoulders, saying he did not know the wounded man, never saw him before, and yet subsequent events established the fact that he was the very man who had inflicted the wound."

ATTEND TO YOUR FEET—CORNS.

One of the most wonderful preparations which has come into use recently is ROBINSON'S CORN PENCIL, which removes from the feet these troublesome excrescences, and that, too, without any pain. Robinson's Corn Solvent dissolves and disintegrates the corn entirely, leaving the feet as smooth and healthy as if the corn had never been there.

It not only removes corns, but warts and bunions, and indurations of any kind are freely removed. Let any one whose feet are troubled with these pests try it at once, and every particle of indurated matter can be removed from the feet.

They are sold at 50 cents each, or by the dozen, at KEYSER'S, 167 Liberty street. Sent by mail for 60 cents.

MEDICINAL WATERS.

JAMES E. BURNS & CO. have, in addition to all the nicely flavored syrups to furnish their magnificent marble palace fountain, just received invoices of 100 packages of medicinal waters, including the Hathorn and Congress Waters of Saratoga, the Magnetic Waters of St. Louis, Michigan, and the Blue Lick Waters of Kentucky, all fresh from native fountains, and for sale in all quantities at their store, corner of PENN AND SIXTH STREETS. The waters here specified are unsurpassed by any in the world for the cure of the diseases to which they are specially adapted, such as intestinal derangements, chronic rheumatism and neuralgia, and affections of the kidney and bladder. Many expensive journeys may be saved by resorting to Burns' for these health giving waters.

WILTED DOWN.

Ask the man who complains of "wilting down" in torrid weather what he has done to sustain his system under the extra strain imposed on his vitality. He may tell you that he has tried a variety of cathartics to purify his blood and brighten his spirits. Under such treatment, of course, his strength has given way, and his energies have become exhausted. What he requires is a restorative, not a depletant. His blood is thin; his nerves have lost their natural tension, and nature demands to be renovated and reinforced. The means is within the reach of all. For nearly a score of years, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been building up broken constitutions, bracing and strengthening attenuated frames, and affording comfort, ease, and hope to thousands. As a preventive of the epidemics which make such havoc with the health of the inhabitants of new settlements this famous tonic is certainly without a rival. Perhaps the principle portion of its world wide fame is attributable to its astonishing cures of dyspepsia, and all forms of indigestion. But these are not a moiety of its triumphs. All the types of biliousness yield to its persistent use. It is a regulating medicine of the highest order; and its effect upon the secretions, when irregular, is most salutary.

Imposition of the grossest character is sought to be practiced upon the community by vendors, who recommend under the name of "bitters," fiery compounds of a dangerous character, which they attempt to substitute for the great national tonic. Shun all such nostrums, and see that you have the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, properly authenticated by label, name and stamp, and sold in bottles only.

A regular Graduate of Medicine, as his Diploma at office shows, has been longer engaged in the treatment of Venereal, Sexual and Private Diseases than any other Physician in Pittsburgh. Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, all forms of Hernia and Rupture, all Urinary Diseases, and Syphilitic or Mercurial affections of the Throat, Skin or Bones are treated with unparalleled success. Spermatorrhea, Sexual Debility and Impotency, the result of self abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes, which produce some of the following effects, viz.: Nervousness, debility, blotches, dizziness, dimness of sight, confusion of ideas, evil forebodings, aversion to society, loss of memory, sexual power, rendering marriage improper and life miserable, are permanently cured. Sealed pamphlet relating to the above sent for two stamps. Correspondence confidential; consultation free. It is self-evident that a Physician who treats thousands of cases every year must acquire great skill. Many physicians knowing this, recommend patients to his care. Medicines sent everywhere. OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, August 31, 1871.

The grain gamblers on the "short side" at Chicago are represented as gradually succumbing to their fate, the fate of all on the wrong side of wagers as to future prices of wheat as well as stocks. Failures have commenced there, and fears are entertained that they will spread.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Wednesday, referring to the wheat market, says:

"The lessened receipts of wheat enabled the combination to pick up the offerings of car lots all the more readily, and advance prices, while the short interest were slow to take hold, hoping for a turn in their favor later in the month; many of them professed to believe that the shorts have nearly all settled up. As an evidence of the irregularity that has pervaded the wheat market for some days past, we may note the fact that No. 2 was yesterday offered to millers at 5c per bu below the market price, and the liberal quantities taken out of store for city consumption indicate that they have availed themselves of the offer. The same offer is said to have been made by the combination to parties who would ship it out of the way, and all the shipments of No. 2 made for several days past have been made either in this way or by the combination directly. Other grades were in light demand to-day, the attention of operators being concentrated on the option deals."

—The New York Bulletin, of Wednesday, says: "In the afternoon a forged check was discovered to the amount of $50,000, the check representing the purchase of $50,000 gold in the morning. The certification of the bank was forged. The loss falls on the broker who sold the gold. The perpetrators of the forgery were doing business in Broad street, and were represented in the Gold Room, although one member of the concern has had a bad reputation on the street for some time past. This member, it is supposed, has got away with the gold.

Closing quotations as received by James T. Brady & Co:

NEW YORK, August 31, 1871.

Gold was steady at 112⅞@112⅞ until after the Government sale, when it advanced to 112⅞@113 and remained firm at that price to the close. In the morning from 2 per cent. to flat was asked for use, but in the afternoon 1@2 per cent. was paid for carrying. Clearances $43,000,000. Bids for Government gold to-day amounted to the unusually large sum of $10,234,000 at from 111.52 to 112.77; awards $1,000,000 at from 112.63⅛ to 112.77. Government bonds were strong and higher, in sympathy with gold. The stock market, early in the afternoon, exhibited increased strength, with a general upward movement in prices. The speculation was buoyant and the advance was quite general. Business was better distributed than for some time past. There was an announcement from Washington this afternoon that Secretary Boutwell has called in one hundred millions of the five-twenty bonds, which caused the general firmness in prices. The features have been New York Central and Hudson, Scrip, Erie, Ohios, Western Union, Union Pacific, Pacific Mail, Wabash, and Hannibal and St. Joe. The Post says Wabash has been in good borrowing demand, 1-64 of 1 per cent. per day having been paid for use. The report is still current that that road is to come into closer relations with Lake Shore and that union interest is contemplated with the Hannibal and St. Joe and St. Joe and Denver City, which will make the route to the Pacific shorter by 220 miles than by other existing lines. At the close the market was quiet and firm, but not up to the best prices of the afternoon. Central and Union Pacific bonds were in good demand and advanced. Money was easy at 2@3 per cent. In State bonds, Tennessees were dull and heavy; Missouris and new South Carolinas were strong.

Wool.

Harding, Gray & Dewey, of Boston, say of the wool market:

"It is evident that the bulk of the Western clip has already reached the seaboard. An estimate of the stock, at the present time, would no doubt show a large falling off compared with last year, and supplies of foreign are also sold up close. Buyers are taking advantage of the very quiet tone of the market for two successive weeks to bear down prices, and on extra grades and above have succeeded in making purchases at 1@2c per lb concession.

"This decline, however, is not general, as some of the principal holders are not disposed to listen to any concession. Many of the lots of wool called XX, offered at low figures, are found not to be desirable or cheap on close inspection, and, on trial of sample bales, are considered even dear compared with a straight XX that costs some 5c per lb more. As usual, on a dull market after a rapid advance, some wool can be bought comparatively cheap, but we doubt if the present reaction will continue for any length of time, as the stock of wool is too light, and in the course of months will be found scarcely sufficient to meet the wants of consumers.

"As an indication of the market we would state that in a number of instances, a difference of ½@1c per lb has interfered with large transactions. Brokers have made offers for round lots, and the agent of a leading New York dry goods house made offers for various lots of fleece, from 200,000 to 500,000 lbs each, and failed to make any purchases.

"Manufacturers are already much indebted to the enterprise of our wool houses for the present moderate surplus of wool. Were it not for the imports of Australia, Port Philip and Cape wools, purchased abroad at a comparatively high cost, our wool market would now be comparatively bare of fine fleeces. The buyers who have recently left for Australia will, no doubt, purchase considerable wool, but it will be some months before any of this wool will be available, and it will come in at a high cost, as the unusual competition in markets abroad must tend to keep up a high range of prices."

Grain and Produce Exchange.

There was a very good attendance at the grain exchange to-day, and, as will be seen, there was considerable business effected, the sales being much larger than for some days past.

6 cars Red Wheat, $1,26.
Lot of No. 1 White Wheat, $1,33.
2 cars Oats at 43.
1 car White Oats, free in elevator, at 44.
1 car mixed Oats, in bags, at 43.
1 tons chopped Corn at $1,40.
1 car tight pressed timothy Hay at $24.
150 bush Rye, on private terms.

New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, August 31.—Sugar firm; prime, 11⅞@12c. Cotton: sales, 500 bales; good ordinary, 16⅛@17c.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, August 31, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4@4¼; refined 4½@4¾; Pearls, 9; Pots, 7½; Nitrate Soda, 4½.

BUTTER—There is a continued active demand for prime roll butter, and with a very limited supply it sells readily at 20@22, and a further advance soon is expected. For the common and medium grades the market is dull, as the supply of this kind is in excess of the demand.

BROOM CORN—The supply is only moderate and generally of medium quality; we continue to quote at 5@7 cts, according to quality.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35c.

COUNTRY BACON—Continues very dull. Country Lard is still quoted at 8@8½.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25@4,50.

CHEESE—Is in steady demand, and while the market is firmer, there is no quotable change in prices; prime Ohio Goshen at 10@11½; Factory, 9@9½, and Dairy, 8@8½.

CARBON OIL—There is a moderate jobbing trade at former quotations, 22½@23 cts. in a jobbing way. A good many orders from the west and south are expected this fall.

CORN MEAL—Is quoted, in small lots, at 80@85 cts per bushel.

EGGS—The egg market is very firm and somewhat excited, and with an active demand and a very meagre supply, prices are steadily advancing; we heard of quotations to-day, at 16, 17 and 18; there were but few sales as there was no stock to operate on. There is also some inquiry from Philadelphia, and it is said that prices have advanced to 25 cts in that market.

FRUITS—Apples continue very scarce, and with an active demand prices are strong and tending upward; common to good sold at $3@4 per bbl, and we heard of some few sales of choice at $5. It is not generally expected, however, that these prices will be maintained, any length of time, as liberal receipts are anticipated within the next week or two. Peaches steady but unchanged $1,50@2 for fair to good, and $2,50 for choice. Plums in in limited supply and the season is almost over. Damson's are still quoted at $3,50@4 per bushel. Grapes dull but unchanged, 5@7 cents.

FLOUR—The receipts are increasing but the stock in this market is by no means large, though fully up to present requirements. We continue to quote good spring extras, at $6,50@6,70; good to choice red winter wheat at $6,50@6,75, and choice Minnesota baker's flour, at $6,90@7.

GRAIN—Wheat is in steady demand but without quotable change in prices: $1.25@1.28 for red, $1,30 for amber and $1,32@1,35 for white. The receipts seem to be increasing, but the mills are taking all that offers at quotations. Oats more active, and, if anything, a shade firmer, though prices are not quotably higher; 39@40 for black, 42@43 for mixed and 44@45 for white. There is a good demand for Rye and, with light offerings and receipts, the market is firmer; No. 1 sells readily at 75 and a round lot would doubtless bring 77@78. Corn is quiet and unchanged; mixed shelled, 62@63 and prime yellow 64@65; prime yellow ear is offering at 65. Barley presents no new features worthy of special notice; we continue to quote spring at 80@83.

GROCERIES—Coffees continue firm, particularly in the east, and it is not improbable that the importers will attempt to establish a still further advance; it is said that at present quotations they are offering very sparingly. Sugars, if anything, are a shade firmer, and it is alleged that, at present quotations, raws are higher, relatively, than refined; it follows, therefore, that there will soon be an advance in the one or a decline in the other. Syrups, Molasses, Rice, Spices, quiet and unchanged.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 20; Prime, 19½; Good, 18½; Fair, 17½; Roasting, 17@17½.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 70; Havemyer & Elders, 70; Silver Drips, 60; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11½; prime 11 good, 10½; fully fair, 10½; Porto Rico Sugars, 10@11; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11@12.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 13½; A Coffee, 12½; "B," 12½; Extra C, 12½; C, yellow, 12½.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime 68; good, 65.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10; prime, 9½ cts; good, 9c.

SPICES—Grain Pepper, 22c. Pimento, 17c. Cloves, 20c. Cassia, 55c.

ROASTED COFFEE—J S Dilworth & Co's. pure in 1 lb packages, 22 cts. Lower grades, 20@21.

HONEY—Quoted at 25@30 cts per lb.

HIDES—Green Salted, 10½@11½; Green Butcher's, 8; Dry Flint, 21@22; Green Calf Skins, 14@15; Green Salted Calf, 17@18.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2½@2¾ cts.

HAY—The market is quiet and unchanged; baled, by the car load, may be quoted at $23@25, for fair to prime timothy.

HEMP—Is higher; last sales reported at $165 per ton.

LIME—Perrysburg white, $2,00@2,25 per bbl; Cleveland $2,25; Eastern, $1,75.

MILL FEED—Is steady with a fair jobbing trade at $21@22 for Bran; $23@25 for Seconds; $33@35 for Middlings, and $43@45 for Oil Meal.

ONIONS—There is a fair local demand, and we can report regular sales at $3@4 per bbl, as to quality.

OIL—No. 1 Lard Oil, (Pittsburgh make) 70@72 to the trade, and 75 in a small way. No. 2 quoted at 58@60.

PEA NUTS—Quoted at 11 cts.

POULTRY—Young Chickens quoted at 50@60 cts per pair and old ones at 70@75.

PROVISIONS—Plain shoulders 6½@7; sugar cured shoulders, 10; Breakfast Bacon, 12@12½; clear sides, 9½@10; ribbed sides, 8½@8½; sugar cured Hams, 14½@15½. Dried Beef, 18; Lard, 10@10½ in tcs; 11@11½ in kegs; 12@12½ in buckets. Mess Pork, $14.

POTATOES—Irish is better demand and may be quoted at 75@85 cts per bushel. Sweets, $4 50@5,00 for Baltimore's and $5.50@6 for Jersey's.

RAGS—Sales, 4@4½ cts per lb.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is reported firmer but unchanged—$3,50@3,75—with an occasional small sale at $4. Clover Seed is quiet, and, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at $6,75@7,00. Flaxseed unchanged at $1.80.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4½ cts.

WILLOWS—Quoted firm at 10 cts.

WATER MELONS—We can report sales all the way from $12 to $20 per hundred, according to size and quality.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY August 31, 1871.

There were but very few sales effected today, nor was it to be expected, as the time and attention of operators generally was absorbed in making settlements and deliveries, this being the last day of the month. It was rumored that a New York exporter was unable to meet his contracts, and that his failure caused considerable refined to be thrown upon the market, which, of course, was not without some effect.

CRUDE.

No sales—market quiet and unchanged. Spot, 12½; seller all year, 11½; buyer all year, 12½; Parker, $4.60; Foster, $4.65; lower creek, $4.75; Oil City, $4.90.

REFINED.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was again swelling slowly last evening with 4 feet in the channel. Weather cloudy and cool with every appearance of more rain. The Allegheny is falling at headwaters with 24 inches at Oil City, and 28 inches at Parker.

JAS. L. FREEMAN, Esq., the "Fire Brick King" is in the city, looking hale and hearty. Report says James L. may call on one of our clergymen before long for a particular purpose.

Capt. A. B. Bunting of Wellsville, was in town yesterday. Capt. Bunting and Capt. Dan Moore made a visit to Glass House yesterday, on a visit to Capt. Rowley.

Com. W. J. Kountz is off to St. Louis again, having left here on Tuesday last.

The E. H. Darfee, was taken on the Marine Ways at St. Louis on Saturday last.

Robt. De Shields, an old Pittsburgh boatman, but who for several years past has been boating on the lower rivers, passed through the city this morning on a visit to some friends at Elizabeth.

The new steamer San Juan, just completed here by Capt. Kennedy for the Rio Grande River trade, had steam up yesterday, and her machinery is said to have warked to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

The reported sale of the new pleasure boat Cora Belle is said to have fallen through.

The Mary Davage is expected to reach here to-day.

It is rumored that Charles Fairman has gone off on a harpooning expedition.

—The following appeared in the Memphis Appeal of the 28th: "In 1802 Oliver Evans and James McKeever (father of the late Commodore McKeever,) of the United States Navy, built a boat to run on the Mississippi, between New Orleans and Natchez, the boat to be supplied with Mr Evans' high-pressure engine, which was built in Philadelphia. The boat was built in Kentucky, but was destroyed by a hurricane before the engine arrived from Philadelphia. The engine was then set to sawing timber in New Orleans, and Mr. Stockhouse (one of the engineers,) who remained with it twelve months and fifteen days, states that during that period the mill was constantly at work. This was the kind of engine sent by Oliver Evans to drive a steamboat against the current of the Mississippi five years before Robert Fulton started the Clermont on the Hudson. In 1803, Mr. Evans having built a dredging machine (believed to be the first worked by steam) to clean the docks of the port of Philadelphia, he embraced the opportunity to practically demonstrate that navigation by steam was feasible, by putting the engine on a scow in the river Schuylkill, and converting the scow into a stern-wheel steamboat, made it propel its way down that river to the Delaware, and thence up to Philadelphia, passing all the vessels in the river. This, four years before Fulton started a steamboat."

—A memorandum of the trip of the steamer Andrew Ackley, prepared for the Sioux City Journal, dated August 22, says: An idiotic looking Indian, from the hostile camp several hundred miles back from the river, who never saw a steamboat, followed the Miner for at least twenty-five miles up the river to-day, with the expectation of seeing the large steam wheel run over the boat. His intense curiosity brought him down to the boat, as she landed to take on wood, a couple of hundred miles above Berthold, when at the same time he was half dead with terror at the sight of the boat, with her big wheel, "which kept so close behind her, but never overtook her." He crept cautiously down to the boat, and in the Sioux tongue asked a frontiersman, who understood him, many questions concerning the strange little craft, which he feared would tumble out of the river and gobble him up. This is the story of the frontiersman, and from the Indian's idiotic appearance, and the manifestations of terror which he exhibited during the conversation, we judge it to be true.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of Tuesday says: "The Ben. Franklin, with Mr. Hamilton at the wheel, performed a neat and difficult feat at Medoc yesterday morning. Desirous of finding a safer way of getting over the bar, Capt Hildreth had the Franklin's course directed along the Kentucky shore until she came within a short distance of the dam, when she was swung round on her starboard side, and by hugging the dam closely was brought safely through a channel not over fifty feet wide, and then swinging round to the larboard side she passed the dam, and came on up the river with scarcely any further trouble. The yawl of the steamer had preceded and sounded the way, and a 'floater' was placed on the lump about sixty feet below the center of the dam, and a 'border' erected on the dam, for future use of steamers."

—The mountain steamer Viola Belle sank at Smith's Bar, Missouri river, Sunday night, and is a total loss. She was owned by Eufort Petring, and C. Fleming, of St. Louis, and was valued at $16,500. She was insured in the Enterprise, of Cincinnati, for $2,500; Peabody and Franklin, Wheeling, $2,253 each; Commercial, Chicago, $2,253; Independent, Boston, $840; Citizens', Wheeling, $901; total $11,000.

—The work on the harbor dams at Louisville is progressing fairly. Monday a large number of men were at work carrying forward the improvements. On the extreme outer end of the old dam a blacksmith shop has been erected, which has been christened Castle Weitzel.

—The Salado exchanged hands Saturday, at New Orleans, but upon what terms we can not exactly tell. We do know, however, that $7,000 cash had been offered for her.

—A lot of damaged cotton, saved from the sunken steamer Caldwell, was lying on the levee at Memphis, Sunday, and was to be sold at auction yesterday.

A Great Wonder.—Unbounded success of the Dollar Store. Crowds continue to throng this gallery of art and carry away such prizes for the pittance of one dollar. Gold watches, chains, jewelry and magnificent chromos are all sold for one dollar. A chromo of the "Oriental Beauty" for a dollar, richly worth $50—at 61 Wood street.

The annual picnic of the Second U. P. Church Mission Sabbath school was held yesterday. About five hundred boys and girls, rich and poor, high and low, followed a band of music to the depot yesterday morning on their way to the woods. The managers of this Sabbath school deserve a great deal of praise for their liberality in various ways to make the days of these little children pleasant.

McPherson's Affairs.

The affairs of J. C. McPherson, the missing Sixth street tailor, are gradually being wound up in the courts. We have already reported several proceedings instituted in this direction and now have another to add to the list. Yesterday morning in the United States District Court an affidavit was filed by Robert A. Young, one of the petitioning creditors, in the bankruptcy proceedings instituted against Joseph C. McPherson, the absconding merchant tailor, lately doing business on Sixth street. The petition sets forth that on or about the 7th of August McPherson made a transfer of his merchant tailoring establishment, including stock, fixtures and lease to James Gallagher, for the purpose of preferring the National Trust Company, a creditor of McPherson. The affiant further avers that C. A. Muhlenbring was the cutter for said McPerson, and is now employed in the same establishment, and that he believes that he knows of the nature of said transfer. It is further averred that the goods are being disposed of, and that deponent believes the interests of the creditors of said McPerson would be promoted by an examination, as provided for in the Bankrupt Act, of James Gallagher, Robert J. Grier, Jacob H. Dickinson, C. G. Muhlenbring, Thomas C. Blair, and such other persons as be found to have any knowledge of said transaction. The Court granted an order directing Register Harper to examine the parties in regard to the matter.

Amusements.

Pittsburgh Opera House.—"Sam" was repeated last evening to a tolerably well filled house. Chanfrau, in the title role, is inimitable, and is well supported by Mr. and Mrs. Ellsler, Mr. Gotthold, Mr. Irving and some of the other members of the company. To-night Mr. Chanfrau will take a benefit, and we hope he will draw as large an audience as he merits, which, we are sorry to say, he has not yet been greeted with.

Fifth Avenue Opera House.—To-night Oliver Doud Byron will take a benefit at this popular place of amusement appearing in his great character of the Ferret in "Across the Continent." The enthusiasm with which this startling sensation is received abates not a whit from that of the opening night, and we doubt not but an overflowing house will greet the gifted Byron this evening. First appearance of the sprightly and versatile Little Nell, the "California Diamond," on Monday evening.

Academy of Music.—A large audience was attracted to this place last evening on the occasion of the second appearance of Tony Pastor and his full troupe. The performance was of a most entertaining character, and almost every act was encored. This troupe is composed of the very best talent in the line of minstrelsy, and everything has an air of freshness and originality about it seldom seen in a traveling troupe. An entire change of programme is announced for to-night.

Our prediction for August was "that from the 27th of July thunder and a continuation of wet weather might be anticipated until the 9th or 10th of August, and from thence to the 21st unsettled weather, and from the 21st to the end of the month rain;" also, "that there would be nothing but easterly winds during the entire month of August, unless they were light local airs, or during thunder."

In the first part of the month we did not have all the rains anticipated, clear of disturbing or local causes. It was general, however, extending over the entire United States.

The rains, therefore, were not local, but proceeded from a southeasterly direction, or from the ocean toward the interior.

On the 27th of July according to prediction, we had thunder accompanied with rain. On the 28th and 29th, we had rain. On the evening of the 29th it became perfectly overcast as if for a steady rain, by the 30th it cleared off, becoming excessively hot and sultry, whilst the fine nimbus could be seen floating from the S. E., each day became more and more threatening, the heat however, absorbing the rains as they approached.

We had again rain on the 3d and 4th, also on the 7th and 8th of August.

As it was impossible for the wind to blow from any other direction than S. E., we had light local airs, and hot sultry weather, whilst they had heavy rains in every other direction.

The following we notice from the "Weather Report." July 31st they had a heavy rain storm at Little Rock, Arkansas, and that southeasterly winds were reported from Tennessee to Minnesota, also that rain had fallen very generally on the Gulf coast, and a few stations in New England. Rain was also reported from the Middle States, also from Virginia to Massachusetts, and from Michigan to Minnesota. Rain and threatening weather was also reported on the coast of Texas, also rain from Missouri to Wisconsin.

By August 1st, southerly winds were reported to prevail on the Atlantic coast, also from the Ohio Valley to Lake Superior and Kansas.

By August 5th, southeasterly winds are still said to continue on the Atlantic coast, and on the 6th of August, rains have fallen in the Mississippi valley, and that threatening and rainy weather is reported from Louisiana to Florida, and North Carolina. By August 7th, southeasterly winds are reported from Chesapeak Bay, to Massachusetts, and that southerly winds prevailed generally in the Southern States.

Being aware of the facts as above stated, we gave the warning in time, although we did not have all the rain that might have been anticipated; we observe that the rains were general and not local, extending over the entire United States, from Florida to Maine, from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains, both wind and rain, precisely corresponding with the prediction given.

From the 10th to the 21st of August, unsettled or changeable weather with northeast winds was predicted. The prevailing winds were from the northeast extremely variable local airs, and sultry weather.

From, or after the 21st of August, rain was predicted till the end of the month, with prevailing southeasterly winds.

From the 21st the prevailing winds were southeasterly, on the 21st the sky being entirely overcast, the amount of cloudiness at Pittsburgh being reported as four-fourths.

Although the weather was oppressively sultry, and threatening, we did not get the rain till the 24th.

By looking to the S. E. of us, or to the Carolina coast, we observe that they had easterly winds and rain, on the very day predicted. It is worth noticing the fact that although they had the rain some two days sooner, we had the wind from the S. E. as soon as they had on the coast of Carolina.

By the Gazette of the 22d of August and report 21st of August, rain is reported from the Carolina coast, and that increasing easterly winds continue from Cape Hatteras to Cape Cod, and by report the day following, fresh and brisk winds prevail from N. E. and S. E., and a continuation of rain from North Carolina to Florida. The foregoing establishes the fact beyond a doubt that the rains predicted for the month of August were not local but general, corresponding in the most minute particular, both in the fore and latter part of the month, with the prediction given.

During a S. E. wind, we noticed that the wind veers from S. E. to S., then S. W., and from that to W. and N. W., that when it gets round to N. W., you have thunder and rain, &c. See Gazette 14th July. The wind seldom remains long from the S. E.; it is strongest, however, from that point, and during a hurricane may veer from N. W. to S. E. Hence the adage, "East wind and rain, makes fools feign."

As during an easterly wind, it appears to clear up, as for beautiful dry weather, whereas, it is only the precursor of a rain storm.

Without further remarks, we will give the prediction for September.

The prevailing winds for the month of September will be northerly till the 23d, and from that westerly winds may be expected to prevail till the end of the month.

From the 21st heavy thunderstorms may be anticipated, and from the 1st to the 22d cool weather; also, from the 19th to the 22d a hurricane may be anticipated from the S. E., in the track of the Gulf stream, the Atlantic and Florida coast and West India Islands.

There will be much less rainfall than in the month of August, and the temperature will be very much reduced.

THE INSTITUTE.

Yesterday's Proceedings—Continuation and Close of the Meeting—The Successful Candidates—Resolutions in Relation to the Death of Prof. Dean.

The Institute convened yesterday morning at half-past nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by Prof. Crum and music by the choir.

Miss Garfield, of New York, then delivered an excellent lecture on the subject, "How to teach Reading." The lecturer evidently was well acquainted with the subject of which she treated.

Dr. Armstrong next delivered an instructive address on "Geography." The speaker was listened to with marked attention throughout.

Mr. Eaton offered the following question, to be referred to the Executive Committee, in order that it be placed upon the programme of a future Institute for discussion: "Does the present management of our schools afford the greatest possible benefit to those for whom they are interested?" Mr. Eaton also indulged in some explanatory remarks.

The discussion of the want of a Normal School in this city was opened by Deputy State Superintendent Houck, and engaged in by Dr. Armstrong, Prof. Thompson, Superintendent Douthett, and others. Mr. Douthett speaking at the special invitation of the Institute.

The meeting then adjourned until 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

After the opening exercises Mr. Van Pelt reported the election of the following persons as officers for the ensuing year:

Vice Presidents—Prof's. Eaton and Monro.

Executive Committee—Messrs. Ford, Monro and Crenshau.

Committee on Permanent Certificates—Miss Nickel and Messrs. Burtt, Holmes, Greeves and Squires.

Mr. Burtt, from the Committee on Resolutions relative to the death of Prof. Dean, reported the following

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Resolved, First—That with feelings of the deepest regret we learn of the death of our fellow-teacher, Philotus Dean, Principal of the High School.

Second—That we tender to the afflicted family our heartfelt sympathy in this bereavement, realizing that our loss is overshadowed by the deeper grief that has fallen upon them. We trust in this hour of their greatest sorrow, the God of the widow and the fatherless will give them that comfort which can come from Him alone.

Third—That we bear our willing testimony to Prof. Dean's superior worth in the teacher's profession, having known him to be a man of remarkably extensive and thorough scholarship; of ready facility in imparting instruction; of strong administrative ability, and of application to his work, even too zealous and constant for his powers of endurance. We have known him as a man, a teacher, a friend and a Christian—kind, candid and social, an ardent follower and lover of truth.

Fourth. That there is a special occasion for sadness in the fact that Prof. Dean has fallen at this moment just when the High School is entering upon an enlarged sphere of usefulness. Prof. Dean has been connected with the High School ever since its organization, sixteen years ago, and the greater part of that time as principal. He has labored in and for this institution through an almost continuous series of severe difficulties and discouragement, sometimes threatening the very existence of the school. His time and thought and life were all given to its interests. Long deferred hopes were about to be realized. A building commensurate with the want of the school was to be opened with the coming season. Largely increased educational facilities had been granted. Popular interest and good-will were turning in its favor. The rewards of patient perseverance and a worthy ambition were just within grasp when the summons was sent, "Come up still higher." We trust our great loss is his eternal gain.

Fifth. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the friends of the deceased.

Respectfully submitted.

A. Burtt,
H. W. Bancroft,
H. G. Squires,
L. H. Eaton,
D. C. Holmes,
Committee.

The resolutions were, after remarks from members of the Institute expressive of their deep sorrow at the death of Prof. Dean, unanimously adopted.

The work of Institute being completed, on motion, adjourned until the regular October meeting.

A SINGULAR CASE.

A Woman Arrested in the Street With a Dead Infant Under Her Shawl—Investigation by the Coroner.

About half-past two o'clock yesterday afternoon, a woman was observed passing along Wylie avenue, near Tunnel street, followed by a party of small boys. Officer Henry C. McCoy, who was standing at the street corner, interrogated one of the lads concerning the woman, and was informed that she was carrying the corpse of an infant under her cloak. In company with policemen Lawrence and Stoerr, Officer McCoy followed the woman, and upon coming up with her the officers asked her what she was carrying, and where she was going. She informed them that she had a dead baby which she proposed to take to the "Sisters" and ask them to bury it. She was taken in custody by one of the officers, and both the woman and the corpse were taken down to the Mayor's office, where the officers were directed by Clerk Patterson to convey the dead body to the Coroner's office.

The prisoner was taken to the lock-up, where she stated that her name was Agnes Sessions; that her sister, Rose Taylor, was the mother of the child; that the infant was born Monday night and died Thursday morning.

The corpse having been placed in the Coroner's charge, that official empannelled a jury and proceeded to hold an inquest. The following testimony was heard:

Henry C. McCoy, sworn—I am county, city and ward officer; was standing on the corner of Tunnel and Wylie streets this afternoon about half-past two o'clock; my attention was attracted by a party of boys running after a woman; asked one of them what was the matter; he said the woman had a dead child under her cloak; I followed the woman in company with officers Stoerr and Lawrence; we overtook the woman going up Boyd's Hill; I stopped her and asked her what she had; she said she had a dead baby; that she was taking it up to the Sisters; officer Lawrence took the woman in custody, and Stoerr took the box that contained the corpse. The woman said that Dr. Hall was the attending physician. She seemed to be much excited when arrested.

Officer Stoerr testified that he took the dead body of the child to the Mayor's office, and Mr. Patterson told him to take it to the coroner's office, which he did.

Officer William Lawrence testified that the woman said the child was born on Monday night and lived until Thursday morning; she said that the child belonged to her sister, Rose.

Mrs. Agnes Session, sworn—I reside in Tunnel street, fourth door from No. 18 in Mellon's court; am acquainted with the mother of the child; she was living previous to the birth of the child with a woman named Swemberger, in Tinpot alley; she was getting $2 50 a week, but did not get her money, and had to stop with me; my husband allowed she should not be in the house; my sister's name is Rose Taylor; she is twenty-one or twenty-two years old; the child was born alive, Dr. Hall attended the mother after the birth; after the child died this morning, I went up to the hospital, but could not get in; I went to see whether I could get it buried there; I started to the hospital with the corpse about twenty minutes after two this afternoon, and was arrested on my way there.

Dr. George McCook sworn—From an examination of the child's body I feel pretty well persuaded that the child was born alive. I cannot tell by external appearance the cause of death.

The jury found that the child died from natural causes. Mrs. Session, who had been released from the watch house in order that she might give her testimony at the inquest, was set at liberty. She stated that she had no money and could not pay the expenses of the burial, whereupon the Coroner took charge of the body and will have it properly interred.

"Friends in Council."

One of those exceedingly pleasant gatherings, where intellectual and social enjoyment seem always to be so happily blended, and which President Pershing has a rare faculty of arranging, was held last evening at the Pittsburgh Female College. A "Trustee's Sociable" it was styled, and a proper time in advance the friends whose presence was desired on the occasion were so notified through the medium of a daintily tinted invitation, which even as a beautiful specimen of the topographical art was fair to look upon, but doubly so from the anticipated pleasure which it irresistably called to mind. In response to their gentle summons the Trustees had the pleasure of greeting more than a hundred of their friends—patrons of the college, former pupils and graduates, and other friends of the institution who had assembled at the appointed rendezvous and filled the brilliantly lighted reception rooms promptly in time. When all had assembled perhaps, half an hour was spent in kindly greetings and informal, social intercourse, when an adjournment to the Caspy Chapel came in order. Here the proceedings took a slight tinge of formality, from the necessary organization of the company into a meeting, over which Joseph Horne, Esq., was called to preside, with Samuel M. Kier, Esq., officiating at the Secretary's desk. For an hour or so following the listeners were entertained with speeches; first a brief one from Dr. Pershing who referred to the past sixteen years of the history of the college, cited some of the toils and triumphs of its managers, and spoke with enthusiasm of the encouraging prospects for the future. Following came a lengthy address—though it seemed short enough as delivered—by the Rev. Dr. Dashiel, President of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, who talked in a very entertaining and instructive way of the great importance of sustaining educational institutions where the moral, as well as the mental and physical growth of "our daughters" received attention. The speaker was particularly happy in his illustrations and logic and often moved his hearers to laughter by humerous sallies, but more often impressed them with the truth of his assertion—that it was especially the duty of each church to sustain its own colleges, where the young might be grounded in "the faith of their fathers," and where religious training should form an essential front of their school-discipline. His remarks were rounded off fittingly with a calm and earnest appeal for a liberal encouragement financially, and in every way, of their own college for women—the Pittsburgh Female College, which he aptly said was, so far as his knowledge extended, just a little ahead of anything in that line he had ever known, and was eminently worthy of every support.

President Horne was now introduced as one of the Trustees to extend his greeting to the institution, which he did practically and pleasantly,—and then the people seemed moved with a liberal spirit, which resulted in a very short time in the contribution of an handsome sum for the furtherance of the college's interest.

Adjournment to the Dining Hall came in very opportunely now, and the guests filed into that apartment, which had been rendered attractive through the exertions of Hubley, who has a fine perception of what attractiveness consists of, on such occasions. Here around the festal board, where good cheer aided conversation, the remainder of the evening was spent, the "sociable" thus pleasantly rounding to a close in the most sociable way, but to the genuine regret of all. It was indeed a most genial friendly gathering and one which will hereafter remind "Trustees Sociables" at the college, with a peculiar pleasure to those who had the happiness of participating in this, the first, which was also the inauguration perhaps of an annual series that will meet with no serious objection from any who are called in to render assistance in completing the circle of friends thus assembled, at any time.

BREVITIES.

September.

Nights cool and pleasant.

Argument list in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday morning.

The September term of the Criminal Court will commence on Monday.

Health Officer Williams reports the small-pox abating in Allegheny.

B. W. Morgan, Esq., is seriously unwell, threatened with an attack of typhoid fever.

The Commission on the improvement of Ella street, having rejected all proposals, ask for more in this morning's paper.

The Allegheny Police Committee met yesteday and approved the pay roll. Expenses for day police amount to $331,33. For night police $3,591.

The entertainment given last evening at the Washington School, Fortieth street, under the auspices of the Pittsburgh Teachers Institute, passed off very pleasantly.

The Allegheny Gas Company are laying a twenty inch main on South avenue. It will extend along the entire front of the city, and may be laid as far as Sharpsburg.

The officers of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, are expected in the city on the 18th of October, to remain one week. It is proposed to get up a celebration on the occasion of their visit.

The Allegheny Street Committee at a meeting last night awarded the contract for paving Stockton avenue from Federal street to Union avenue with stone pavement to W. S. Robertson at $3 per yard.

The locomotive of a freight train on the Pittsburgh, Washington & Baltimore Railroad jumped the track near Hazlewood yesterday. The track was torn up for a short distance but no further damage done.

The St. George Library Association has lately been organized on Thirty-seventh street. St. Augustine's Hall has been procured and handsomely improved, and a reading room will shortly be opened.

Messrs. James Kelly, Moses Chess, and J. T. F. Wright have been chosen delegates for the Allegheny County Agricultural Society to the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania, which holds its annual meeting Wednesday September 6th.

The announcement of Mrs. E. A. Smith, Principal of the Irving Institute, will be found on our first page. Mrs. Smith and her school are so well known among our citizens that we know it requires no praise of ours to crowd her with scholars.

The Street Committee of Councils will meet this evening, and will let the contract for the Suke's Run Sewer. The sewer is to be four and a half feet in diameter, and is to extend along Ann street to Stevenson street, and up Stevenson to Forbes street.

The case of Chris. Graff, charged with seduction on oath of Miss Morgan, a hearing in which was to take place yesterday before Alderman S[illegible], was postponed on account of the absence of the magistrate. Further testimony will be published when the final hearing takes place.

An injunction was issued from the District Court yesterday morning to restrain Mayhart Bryant, et al., from encroaching on the Steubenville Turnpike out beyond Temperanceville. The defendants, it is alleged, are building a wall there, which, it is contended, runs several feet over the line.

In the Common Pleas Court yesterday morning, Judges Stowe and Collier issued an order directing that the claim of $92 93 of James Reed et al., for rent of the house on Wood street recently occupied by the bogus firm of "Lyman J. Blanchard & Co.," be taken from the proceeds of the sheriff's sale of the goods of the "firm."

John McKenna, who is charged before Alderman Butler with deserting his wife, has been arrested and held in five hundred dollars bail for his appearance at court. It will be remembered that McKenna left his house one night this week, taking away his child. He says the child is in the country, but refuses to give any information as to its exact whereabouts.

The funeral of Prof. Philotus Dean, late Principal of the Pittsburgh Central High School, who died on Wednesday afternoon, will proceed from the Third Presbyterian Church to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. It is to be hoped that there will be a full attendance of the past and present scholars, who in the High School have been under his care and tuition, to pay a last sad tribute to his worth. He will be buried in Uniondale Cemetery.

The Bethel A. M. E. Church, on Wylie avenue, which has for some time been undergoing extensive improvements, is now nearly finished, and will be re-opened on the 17th of next month. The work on the building cost $6,400, and the money has been judiciously expended. The structure has a new front of pressed brick, and the interior has been thoroughly renovated. New windows of stained glass and new pews are among the improvements. Bishop D. A. Payne, D. D., will officiate at the opening.

IN MEMORIAM.

Death of Prof. Dean—Action of the Central Board of Education—To Attend his Funeral in a Body.

Yesterday afternoon the Central Board of Education held a special meeting to take action in reference to the death of Professor Philotus Dean, Principal of the High School.

Present—Messrs. Aiken, Craig, Fleming, Hartman, Lewis, Shaw, Mitchell, Nobbs, Praetsch, Sims, Strain, Taylor, Young and President Wilson.

The chair stated the object of the meeting.

Mr. Sims moved the appointment of a committee to prepare resolutions, expressive of the feelings of the Board upon the subject. Carried and Messrs. Sims, Shaw and Craig selected.

Mr. Sims asked to be excused on account of sickness. Granted and Mr. Taylor appointed in his place.

Mr. Craig moved that the Board attend the funeral in a body—the members to meet at the rooms of the Board and hear the report of the Committee on Resolutions before proceeding to the funeral.

In making the motion, the gentleman accompanied it with a few remarks in eulogy of the deceased principal and his faithfulness, zeal and efficacy in the position which for many years he had filled so acceptably. The motion was then carried.

Mr. Craig thought it well as the time for the opening of the High School was so close at hand, that some powers be given to the High School Committee, to make all arrangements for the opening.

He therefore moved that the High School Committee have the school opened, Monday morning with Superintendent Luckey in charge until further arrangements could be made; also, that the pupils be requested to report at the old school Monday morning, and then dismissed without further action. The new school was not yet ready and would not be so by Monday, and he thought this was all that could be done.

Mr. Shaw thought the schools ought to be regularly organized and the schools classified, and all preliminary measures taken for the regular opening of the schools when they could get into the new building.

Mr. Craig then withdrew a part of his motion, and that portion in relation to the appointment of Superintendent Luckey as Principal pro tem of the High School was adopted.

Mr. Shaw then moved that the pupils be required to meet Monday morning, when all classification, &c., would be made that would be necessary before they entered into the new building. Carried.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to have carriages provided for the use of the Board at the funeral.

Mr. Strain moved that out of respect to the memory of Prof. Dean the Board do now adjourn.

Mr. Craig said he had been asked by several candidates for admission to the school who had failed on the first examination whether they would be allowed a re-examination.

Mr. Hartman moved that these who had failed on but one study be allowed a re-examination on Tuesday morning at eight o'clock. Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

MILITARY OCCASION.

The Smith Zouaves—Interesting Presentations.

The Rowland H. Smith Zouave Company composed of some seventy-five of the very best representative young men of the Sixteenth ward and neighborhood, held a grand military pic-nic yesterday, at Dr. A. H. Gross' beautiful field of woods and wilds, known as Friendship Grove. The attendance was very large, some five hundred ladies and gentlemen being present. The very best of order was preserved, and the affair proved one of the most delightful and enjoyable of the season. During the afternoon the company, under charge of the gallant Captain Charles J. Barr and his efficient aids, Lieutenants John F. McCleary and Samuel F. Pedan, favored those present with a fine exhibition of their superior drill and artistic military attainments. During the evening a solid silver service of beautiful and unique patern, and to the full compliment of pieces, was presented to R. H. Smith, Esq., as a gift in acknowledgement of the regard and esteem in which he is held by the members of the company who are so proud to recognize in him so warm a friend and so patriotic and generous a patron. The service bore an appropriate engraved inscription. Maj. Montooth made the presentation speech in his usually eloquent and happy style which was feelingly responded to by Mr. Smith in a grateful and felicitous manner. The service was of much value and its presentation conveyed a high compliment to one of the most worthy and progressive young citizens of our community.

Subsequetly a very fine and valuable silk flag was presented to the company by Mr. A. B. Boles, who spoke in a most patriotic and complimentary strain on behalf of the Misses Anna and Lizzie Harper, Miss Kiagan and Miss Tegethoff and other ladies of the Sixteenth ward, the donors. The colors were accepted with a neat speech by W. C. Moreland, Esq., after which a grand musical concert was given. Then on went the merry dance until midnight, when all adjourned, pleased with the entertainment, and high opinion for the military excellence and gallantry of the Smith Zouaves.

THE LIFE BOAT.

The Correspondence Between Mr. Scaife and Mr. Oxley.

In yesterday's Gazette we mentioned that Mr. Wm. B. Scaife of this city had presented to the Park Commission a life boat for the lake. This morning we are able to give the correspondence between Mr. Scaife and Mr. Oxley, as follows:

Pittsburgh, August 29th, 1871.

To the Park Commission, Allegheny, Pa.:

Gents:—Permit us to present to you a Metallic Boat we have made for use on the lake. On account of the limited size of the lake, it was impossible to pay much attention to the model and at the same time have it perfectly safe for the children; a present we have kept in view in preference to anything else. We hope it may add to the pleasure of the many children who already find great enjoyment in their rambles in the Park.

Very Respectfully Yours,
Wm. B. Scaife & Sons.

Allegheny, August 30, 1871.

Wm. B. Scaife & Sons:

Gentlemen: I have the honor, on behalf of the Park Commission, of replying to your favor of the 26th of August, presenting a metallic boat, built by your firm expressly for the Park Lakelet. The communication was read, and the style of the boat explained by a member of the Park Commission, whereupon it was unanimously decided to accept the offer and return the donors their very cordial and sincere thanks; also duly record the same in the Park Donation Memorandum Book. The gift comes very opportunely, inasmuch, as the Lakelet was considered incomplete without a craft of some kind to grace its surface. The Lakelet is now completed, and a craft, which I am happy to say, has no superior in design, execution and finish, now jauntingly floats abreast the water, affording prospective enjoyment and pleasure to thousands upon thousands of children, who will, while availing themselves of its protection, ever regard the donors of the fair "Lady of the Lake" as exemplars in the virtue of an enlarged liberality. Thanking you again on behalf of the Commission, and promising that good care will be taken of our Lake craft—I remain, yours truly,

J. R. Oxley,
Secretary of the Park Commission.

POLITICAL.

The Morgan Raid on Try Street—A Few Words of Explanation.

Messrs. Editors:—Several days since a communication appeared in your paper signed by "One Who Knows" in which the writer labors to demonstrate that Mr. Ben. W. Morgan had been improperly influenced by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in regard to the Try street trouble. "One Who Knows" had entered the lists as an opponent of Mr. M. because that gentleman did not see proper to reply to a communication signed "Shipper," asking if the Pennsylvania Railroad Company had not succeeded in turning him over to it. "One Who Knows," in the article referred to, starts out with the avowed purpose of telling the public all about it, but his statements and assertions are so wide of the truth, that no one who read the daily papers giving an account of these matter at the time could be deceived by them. If you will allow me the space in your columns, I shall endeavor to show that "One Who Knows" knows nothing about the matter. In the first place, he says then when "the project of permitting the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to occupy Try street was first mooted, it had no more strenuous or violent opponent than Benjamin W. Morgan" and then proceeds to state that in his usual "domineering manner he pronounced the proposed change an outrage." Will the facts bear out the assertion? We are certain they will not. Mr. Morgan discovered that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was taking possession of Try street, and was in the act of making an excavation for a pier immediately opposite the mouth of First avenue. Knowing that if the proposed change was carried into effect the Connellsville freight depot would be practically and literally walled in, he visited Try street, as was his duty as Chairman of the Street Committee, and quietly but determinedly informed Mr. Creighton that the work must be suspended. A consultation was held, and Mr. Creighton remarked that the only way in which the work could be suspended was by the arrest of the working party, and it was decided to adopt that course. "One who knows" says that Mr. Morgan rushed to the Mayor's office in hot haste and demanded in the most imperative manner that the workmen be arrested. Such is not the fact by any means. At the consultation, in which J. W. F. White, Esq., acting for the city Solicitor, J. H. Page, Jr., of the Connellsville road, J. M. C. Creighton, of the Pennsylvania road, and Mr. Morgan participated, it was decided that Street Commissioner Linderman should make an information before the Mayor against the railroad company. The information was made, and when the laborers resumed work they were arrested on warrants based upon the information made by the Street Commissioner. Two gangs were arrested, and a third gang would have been taken into custody if the company had not withdrawn the men from the work. There was no excitement, no bluster, and Mr. Morgan did not display an imperative manner nor can the officials remember anything about "his excited conduct, and how anxious he was to have the workmen taken into custody," simply because nothing of the kind occurred. Now about the sudden change, as alleged, in the opinions of Mr. M., which so disturb the equanimity of "Shipper," and "One who knows." The latter charges "that at a late meeting of Councils this same Benjamin W. Morgan presented a report in favor of permitting the very work he before had condemned so lustily, and to show his zeal on behalf of his new masters, moved a suspension of the rules, for the purpose of securing the final passage of an ordinance permitting the company to occupy the street from which but a few days before he had proposed to drive their workmen." Is there any truth in these charges? Not the least particle. The work which the ordinance was intended to authorize was essentially different in every respect, and instead of being an injury was decidedly advantageous to the Connellsville Railroad Company. In the first place the location of the proposed pier on Try street was changed by it; provision was made in it for the opening of First avenue through to the depot of the Connellsville Railroad; provision was also made for a roadway of eighteen feet in width on the west side of the street, and it was further provided that on the east side of the railway track, a street thirty-seven feet in width should be opened from Greenough street to First avenue. An agreement was also entered into with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, by which the latter was to purchase a strip of ground twenty feet wide, running from Second avenue to Greenough street, which was to be opened as a street and paved at the expense of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, an indemnifying bond being given to the city to insure the fulfillment of the agreement. Accordingly, under the ordinance which Mr. M. "tried to force through under a suspension of the rules," the Connellsville Company would secure three avenues to their depot, instead of one, and they would secure an eighteen feet roadway on the west side of Try street, where there is now none, and on the east side a roadway of thirty feet instead of eighteen, as at present. Is this a change of opinion? Does not the ordinance rather show Mr. M. to be consistent, and at the same time display his fairness and honesty of purpose? This ordinance will enable the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to make a change in the track on Try street that has been demonstrated absolutely necessary, but it will also prevent them from doing the work in a manner detrimental to a company in the success of which every Pittsburgher has a deep interest. Mr. M's. course in the matter is highly honorable and deserves the highest commendation instead of the unfair criticism indulged in by your correspondent. "One Who Knows," when he again tries his hand ta enlightening the public, should be certain that the fact is a matter so well known as the Try street troubles are not Grossly preverted. If justice, equity and honorable dealing are qualifications for the chief magistracy of the city, Mr. Morgan should not only receive the votes of all business men, but of every citizen who has a proper appreciation of the duties devolving upon that officer.

Justice.

Republicans vote for Dr. Gross to-morrow. Make his majority as large as possible. He is the best man now before you for the Republican nomination. Vote for him and Pittsburgh will be blessed the next three years with an able, just and considerate Mayor. Vote for him if you regard the interests of the city.

Do the riches of Dr. Gross entitle him to Mayoralty nomination, when Ben. W. Morgan is superior to him in all other respects?

Mr. Morgan's Retrenchment and Reform Movement—What it Accomplished—How it was Baffled.

Messrs. Editors: A writer in the Dispatch, who signs himself "Anti Humbug," but who might be more accurately designated, endeavors to pay off an old grudge against Benjamin W. Morgan by referring to that gentleman's retrenchment and reform movement in Councils, and demanding one single instance where Mr. M. "originated a measure for the public benefit, or calculated to save the city a single red." It seems to me from the tone of the writer that he has a very distinct recollection of at least one measure that Mr. M. originated that effected a clear saving of at least ten thousand dollars in a single year to the city. I refer to the ordinance reducing the number of city printers. He was the author of that ordinance, and because he had influence enough in the Councils to secure its adoption, he encountered the hostility of "Anti-Humbug" to the extent of over $4,000 worth of hate per year. Some people have a very treacherous memory, but no one who knows "Anti Humbug" could ever be convinced that the ordinance referred to in the interest of retrenchment and reform had been forgotten by him!

But this is not the only measure, introduced or supported by Mr. M., which resulted in the saving of the people's money. Does "Anti Humbug" remember the alleged pipe frauds? If he has forgotten that matter he can refresh his memory by referring to the pages of the Municipal Record. The pages of the Record teem with just such "instances" as "Anti-Humbug" calls for, and he knows it, too. By reference to the Record it will will be seen that Mr M.'s committee was hampered and hindered at every step, but with the pluck and determination so characteristic of the man, the Chairman was enabled to overcome difficulties and obstructions until some of the parties whose trail he was pursuing were compelled to squeal and were only saved through the direct interference of a majority of the members of the Select branch.

On the 99th page of the Municipal Record for 1869, debate in Common Council on "The Retrenchment and Reform Committee and the Pipe Business," is given at length, and shows that, whether or not there was any gouging, Select Council was determined that Mr. Morgan's committee should not have the power to send for persons and papers, as asked for, in order that a thorough investigation of the matter could be made. Instead of granting the power, Select Council passed a resolution for the appointment of a special committee of five to make the investigation, thus taking the matter out of the hands of the Reform Committee. During the course of the debate on the resolution in Common Council, Hon. John P. Penney spoke strongly in opposition to the resolution. In his remarks Mr. Penny said: "Why stop the Reform Committee in the middle of their investigation? * * * * The Select Council virtually say to the Committee: 'You must stop this investigation right here; we will appoint a new committee.' Is this proper? The people expect this investigation to go further, and I, for one, will not vote for any resolution to take it out of the hands of the Retrenchment and Reform Committee. I hold them to their responsibility; and will vote for no resolution to tie their hands or muzzle their mouths * * But why appoint a new Committee to take the charges out of the hands of the regular Committee? Is it because some of their friends have been hurt? Is this the reason why they conclude that this Committee should go no further?"

But, notwithstanding this determined opposition, through the indefatigable efforts of Mr. Morgan a rule of the Water Committee is now in force requiring that all pipe sold to the city shall be weighed by the Clerk of the Water Committee, which was never done before. Is this not a measure for the benefit of the city and in the interest of Reform? "Anti-Humbug" designates Mr. Morgan as a "blather skite," but, whatever the writer may mean by this, the record proves him to be a man of action as well as a man of words. His whole course in Councils defies the criticism of such persons as "Anti Humbug." Did he not work up the charges of fraud in the excavation of the Seventeenth ward station house? Did he not labor and vote against the purchase of the Coleman property as a site for the new water works, notwithstanding the fact that the location of the works there would have enhanced the value of his own property contiguous? Has he not been on the right side, so far as the interest of the city was concerned, of every important question that has been before Councils since he has became a member? The Record shows that he has, and if it were necessary the pages could be cited.

And allow me to ask just here, what was the position of Dr. Gross on these questions? How did he stand on the question of retrenchment and reform? Was he an ardent and energetic opponent of jobs and frauds on the city treasury? If he were the compilers of the Municipal Record, and the reporters of the daily papers have been grievously incorrect. How do we find him voting on the resolution "tieing the hands and muzzling the mouths" of the Retrenchment and Reform Committee? How did he talk and vote on the Coleman Hill purchase? The Record shows that he voted with the majority of the Select Council to hamper and defeat the investigations of Mr. Morgan's committee; he voted and argued in favor of the Coleman Hill purchase, by which it was proposed to pay $400 per acre for property which had been sold to individual purchasers for $60 per acre. His votes on all the important questions of the day have the same leaning away from the interests of the citizens and taxpayers. Yet "Anti-Humbug" elevates himself above Mr. Morgan, and affects to sneer at the prospects of the latter. The animus of the article is plainly apparent, for the loudest mouthed and most bitter and determined enemies of Mr. Morgan are those persons who have felt the force of his fearless and determined efforts to bring about retrenchment and reform in the management of the affairs of the city.

The Record.

The City Controllership and the Finance Committee.

Messrs. Editors: I have always had a high regard personally for the present incumbent of the Controller's office, but certainly not on account of his superior clerical attainments, neither are his Finance Committee friends willing to accord him that reputation. I believe with them that he is honest but wholly incompetent to have charge of the fiscal affairs of this city. He depends entirely on clerks, and if left to himself, could not perform the duties of the position for an hour. In the columns of figures and entangled accounts he would find himself so deeply swamped that even the astute Eleventh ward physician who is helping him could not fish him out.

But what I want to direct attention to particularly is the fact, that while some members of the Finance Committee of Councils have denied the rumor that Controller M'Gowan's books were to be taken away from him, and given for adjustment to competent accountants, still they absolutely refused to lend a word of commendation or indorsement to him on the ground of fitness for the office, although the wily physician referred to, endeavored, by tricks that were vain, to secure such action. The meeting was called in his interest, but the object most signally failed. Indeed I am told that had a resolution been offered in accordance with the alleged rumor, it would have received several indorsers in the Committee. The people will readily interpret these facts for themselves. The tax-payers have already been made sensibly aware of these deficiencies, by having Mr. M'Gowan go into Councils and beg for extra compensation for an assistant.

Let me briefly recall an incident connected with Mr. McGowan's administration. Some few months since, a reporter of a daily paper called on him for a statement of the fiscal affairs of the city, when he replied his clerk was absent, and it would require him some three months' time to make it out! Perhaps three years' time would not have seen the figures completed had Mr. McGowan been entrusted with the work of compiling them; but the newspaper man went at it himself, and working between times, made a full and correct statement for his paper inside of three days!

It is a matter of grave importance that a proficient accountant should relieve Mr. McGowan the next term, and the very man that is required is Mr. Chas. A. Kehew, who will in all probability receive the Republican nomination on Saturday afternoon. He is thoroughly honest and in every way capable, and would reflect credit on the city.

Let me remark in conclusion that I am confident that neither Mr. Kehew or his friends had anything to do with the rumor referred to. Indeed, it is strongly hinted that it originated in the old man's own imagination, as a means to enlist sympathy in his behalf.

Finance Committee.

Ben. W. Morgan is recognized as a working man, and our workingmen should unite in supporting him.

It is claimed that Dr. Gross seeks the Mayoralty simply for the honor. Why then does he attempt to degrade the working classes by assuming that they can be purchased with gold?

Ben. W. Morgan deserves and will receive the votes of the intelligent citizens of every class.

Vote for Gross to-morrow. By doing so you will vote for good government of the city, a fair execution of the laws and a better order than has ever prevailed in the city.

Capt. William M. Dalgliesh for City Treasurer.

Editors Gazette: I was somewhat surprised, nay, astonished, to read the statement in a paper professing to be Republican that the Treasury contest was narrowed down to a dual tilt between Magee and Cochran. Such unfairness may serve to divert a few votes from Capt. Dalgliesh, and I have no doubt that such was the purpose of the author of the statement referred to. But when we take into consideration the fact that Capt. Dalgliesh is the most popular candidate in the field for City Treasurer, and that his nomination may be set down as a foregone conclusion, I very much doubt if the simple statement of an editor, who is not supposed to know any more about the chances of candidates than some other people, will have a very damaging effect upon the candidate whom he seeks to defeat. Now, it is the firm belief of hundreds of prominent and influential Republicans with whom I have conversed, that Capt. William M. Dalgliesh will receive a large plurality of the votes cast, and if the elections are fairly conducted there can be no doubt as to the result—Dalgliesh will be City Treasurer.

As an indication of the chances of Captain Dalgliesh, I give the following from the Chronicle of yesterday:

"The term of absorbing anxiety on the part of political aspirants and their friends is drawing rapidly to a close, and on all hands the hopes of those interested are becoming strengthened and confirmed, or are weakening and dying out. Of the former class seem to be the hopes of the friends of Captain Wm. M. Dalgleish, candidate for the position of City Treasurer. The utmost confidence in his nomination is felt and expressed. Should this confidence be justified by the event, we can confidently state that a good man will be secured to the position. The Captain's military record is excellent, but better than that is the fact that he is a man of excellent capacity, sterling honor and unflinching integrity."

The Chronicle is proverbial for fairness in all things, and the above may be set down as the expression of an honest conviction. It will be found upon counting the votes, that the friends of Captain Dalgliesh have not been mistaken in their calculations.

As Capt. Dalgliesh is the only man seeking the office of Treasurer who served his country in the hour of that country's peril, he is entitled to the vote of every brave soldier, and I think he will receive a large majority of the soldier vote. As to his capability to fill the office, it cannot be questioned, and that he is strictly honest, none will deny. The flimsy argument that a man must be educated in the Treasurer's office in order to qualify himself for the position has been used in order to advance the interests of one or two of the candidates. It amounts to just nothing.

A vote for Dalgliesh will be a vote for the winning man.

A vote for Dalgliesh will be a vote for as brave a soldier as ever faced an enemy to our flag.

A vote for Dalgliesh will be a vote for an honest and capable man.

A vote for Dalgliesh will be a vote for a life-long Republican, who has never before sought an office at the hands of his party.

A Republican.

Dr. Gross expects to buy the workingmen's votes. He should be taught that workingmen cannot be purchased. They know Ben W. Morgan is a competent man.

Dr. Gross represents all the people. He will make as good a Mayor as ever sat upon the chair. Vote for him.

Workingmen. Dr. Gross depends on his money alone for his nomination.

Mechanics should vote for Ben. W. Morgan, one of their kin.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

Before Alderman O'Donnell, Mollie McHenry charged Jennie Taylor with the larceny as bailee of a bedstead worth $17 and chairs worth $3, which had been entrusted to her keeping. Jennie resides on Tenth street and Mollie on Mulberry alley. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Eliza Duffey and Maggie Jackson were each sent for six months to the Workhouse for vagrancy. Maggie tore all her clothes off in the cell, but Eliza furnished her with a dress for the journey.

Mayor Callow had ten disorderly cases to dispose of. Out of the number five were committed to the Workhouse as follows: David Weaver, James Pope, Leonard Snyder and George Free were each committed for thirty days. Patrick Murphy, who took a walk from the Workhouse a few days since, leaving two months of his term unexpired, was among the number. He was sent back for six months as a punishment for escaping from the institution.

Before 'Squire Conrad, of St. Clair borough, John Schultz sued Andrew Smith for surety of the peace. Warrant issued.

John Mulligan was sent to jail for ten days by 'Squire Barker. John got drunk, and while in that state manifested a partiality for clutching at the skirts of the fair sex as they passed along the street.

Mrs. Colleraw endeavored to awe Mrs. Honora McCarthy into subjection yesterday morning, and broke a tea-cup over her head. The parties reside in Monongahela borough. Warrant issued.

Kate Kelley made two informations before 'Squire Barker, charging Bridget Connelly with selling liquor on Sunday, and also dispensing the ardent generally without having a license. Committed for a hearing.

C. Wellebold appeared before the same magistrate, and made an information charging a man named Schmaus with cruelty to his sick wife. Warrant issued.

Chief Clark recovered a watch which was stolen some months ago from a boarding house on Sandusky street, Allegheny. The owner had in the mean time changed his place of abode, and the Chief has been unable to discover his whereabouts. He can recover his property by calling at the Mayor's office.

George Dickson, of Allegheny, went on a drunk and disorderly tour in a buck wagon. He created considerable commotion on Federal street by his boisterous conduct and abuse of the animal he was driving. Thirty days to the Workhouse in default of twenty-five dollars fine was the sentence.

Samuel Dougherty made an information before Alderman Taylor, charging Patrick M. Stark with assault and battery. The parties live in the Twelfth ward. Patrick, it is alleged, attacked Dougherty with great violence and threw him to the floor. The accused was arrested and a hearing will be had to-day.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The City Infirmary—Small-pox Cases to be Reported—Sanitary Regulations.

The Board of Health met yesterday afternoon.

Present: Messrs. McCandless, House, Hays, Edwards, Gilmore, Fleming.

Mr. McCandless presided.

Minutes of last meeting approved.

Mr. McCandless, from the Committee on City Infirmary, reported the action of Common Council in directing "floating hospitals" to be established, but said that as the matter had not reached Select Council, nothing further could be done.

After some discussion upon the report, it was decided to take no action further in the matter until ordered by Council. A sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Fleming and Gilmore was appointed, however, to consult with Mr. M. Swartzwelder, the solicitor of the Board, and get his opinion as to the powers of the Board in relation to the establishment of a hospital.

The Health Officer was instructed to bring suits against Wm. Hany, R. McElheney and John Callahan, for maintaining nuisances on their premises.

Mr. Edwards offered the following:

Whereas, The health officer of this Board has attended to all the small-pox cases that he has any information of, and from the number of deaths returned to this office there are a number of cases we do not get any information of until we receive the death notice; therefore,

Resolved, That we call upon all good citizens, and the physicians in particular, to assist this Board as much as possible by giving the health officer notice of cases by letter, or otherwise, of their place of residence, so that he can go to them and adopt such sanitary regulations as the cases may require.

Resolved, That the Health Officer of this Board be instructed to prevent all communication with infected houses in accordance with Section 81, act of Assembly, defining powers of the Board, and also place a notice of "small-pox" on the door of said house or houses infected, and do all that is possible to prevent the spread of the disease.

Resolved, That the officers of the Board of Health visit the physicians of the city to receive their reports of small-pox cases.

The resolutions were adopted. Adjourned.

Boiler Explosions.

The latest English mails bring an act in reference to boiler explosions which has passed a second reading in the House of Commons, but by the adjournment of that body has been postponed for consideration at the next session. This bill contains several important provisions and proposes an alternation of the law in reference to the respective responsibilities of the owner and the servant in charge of the boiler. At present, it is stated, that when a boiler explodes in England and destroys life and property, the burden lies with the injured persons and their representatives of proving that the boiler was out of repair, or defective, or carelessly managed. The sufferers by an explosion must therefore prove affirmatively that the boiler was defective and badly managed, and also that the owner was aware of the fact. A verdict of accidental death from a coroner's jury, it is said, will practically settle the question, and relieve the owner of the boiler. The bill before the English House of Commons, however, was drawn up on the hypothesis that steam boilers can be so constructed and worked as to be perfectly safe, and that it is the duty of the owner to exercise intelligent care, inspection and supervision over the apparatus, and that if he fails to ascertain exactly the condition of his boiler by the employment of the requisite professional advice and assistance he must be considered responsible for the results of any omission to perform his entire duty. The law farther holds that, as the owner, by himself and servants, is in possession of the facts as to the condition of the boiler, in the event of an explosion the burden shall rest upon him of proving the efficiency of such steam boiler, and of the valves, gauges and equipments. If the owner fail to prove that he has performed his duty he is to be held responsible for all damages to person and property. The verdict of "nobody to blame" has become so common that the English people are trying what remedy can be applied through Parliament.

SYRACUSE.

State Universalist Convention.

Syracuse, N. Y., August 31.—This was the third and last day of the State Universalist Convention. About sixty ministers, besides lay delegates, were in attendance. The Convention adopted the report of the Committee on Education. It recommends, among other things, a female professorship for the benefit of young ladies at the St. Lawrence University. The constitution of the General Conference was formally ratified and the convention adjourned.

LAYING A CORNER STONE.

The corner stone of the new Syracuse University was laid to-day with imposing ceremonies. The University is to be religious, not sectarian. Students will not be excluded on account of color or sex.

ADDITIONAL MARKETS.

Live Stock.

Baltimore, August 31.—Cattle market fairly active and closed slow. We quote very best on sale at $5.12½@5.75; first quality $4.50@5.12½; medium $3.75@4.50; ordinary $3@3.75; receipts 2,295; sales 1,854. Hogs: demand moderate and supply large; prices lower, we quote at 6¾@7c; receipts 10,711. Sheep: market without change; fair to good 4½@5c: good to extra 5@5½c; receipts 3,670.

Titusville Oil Market.

Titusville, August 31.—The Courier reports the petroleum market for Thursday, August 31, as follows: Sales on Upper Road of 1,000 bbls P. T. Co. spot, $4.40. Petroleum Centre: 300 H. G. delivered, $4.77½. Rouseville: 85 regardless, $4.65; do 500 do, $4.70; do 335 do, $4.70. Lower Road: 2,000 S. O. thirty day $6 50. Oil City: 1,000 47 gravity $4.95. This being the closing day of the month, many contracts fell due and all parties gave their time and attention to making statements, so that the day's business was very light. Prices, however, remain steady and holders are firm and buyers far from anxious.

THE GRATEFUL AND INVIGORATING influence of RANKIN'S "FERRATED ELIXIR OF BARK," adapts it particularly to persons enfeebled by sickness or exposure, the ingredients of which it is composed being the most energetic of anti-periodics. In low states of the system it will be found invaluable. Prepared by
